Conditions will be favorable so that you can go to Kingston with an easy mind.
I'm glad to know Dr. ^{B.} is doing something that brings him in money every month.
Mrs B. told me the Dr. was busy enough in and around Bath, but ~~the~~ ^{some} patients forget to pay for his services. Now both people are nervous with no Dr.
Serves the old smugs right. I'm not one bit sorry for them. They did not appreciate him or his efforts to rouse them out of their lethargy.
Dr. B. is so super sensitive that he feels the vibrations of others. In congenial company he expands and is the life of the party. In a bunch of smugs and phlegmatics he feels smothered. He may overcome it I want to see that way too.

I'm writing on an adjustable bed table that can be arranged like a black board. This confounded cast will not permit me to sit up.

Jan 17. Now, knowing how every minute counts with you I'm not expecting anything better ^{July 29.} If it is possible for me to go east I may write you in April asking for some information.

I'm enclosing an Aquarian forecast for 1941. Some paragraphs apply to you.
It is a general forecast. It may or may not be worth something to you.
In your last letter you thought of me as being "in tune with The Infinite". I was until this accident. Since then I don't want to even think of The Infinite. I have good books. Don't want to read them now but I have the time. As my mind is now receptive I've stopped forcing thoughts on it and will wait until it is in tune again.
My friends all think of me as a good sport if they knew how recent feel I am. They'd say I am a quitter. The mood will pass out.
Hardly I can jolly along as usual. Wish it were possible to send you some of the specimens I have nowadays. - Buckle -

Dear Ray:-

A letter from Lillian dated Nov. 27, said she and Fred stopped to see you and your mother in October, so I take it for granted that she is still with you. Knowing how elderly people like to be remembered I am enclosing a card for her birthday. (As I am a youngster of 50 I'm not in the elderly class)

I know you will like the picture of the country around Fort Edwards. It may not be very near the former Rogers farm, but it will give an idea of the lay of the land-at the same time I am hoping against hope that it is the location you are so anxious to see for yourself.

No doubt you are familiar with Kipling's IF. I sent the enclosed copy to Raymond years ago, but, his wife, not being concerned with the finer things of life gave it back to me. YOU will appreciate it.

Last Spring I read about $\frac{1}{4}$ of Van Loon's "The Arts" and enjoyed it. Perhaps this coming winter I may have an opportunity to read another $\frac{1}{4}$. The paragraph at the bottom of page 29, on evolution seems to be true of conditions in Europe and Russia to-day. Russia now regrets the slaughter of millions of their ^{her} intellectuals. The picture on page 25 is also significant.

Genealogy, autobiography and other work along that line has been shoved in the background until my mind is clear of other diversions. You are not the only one who has set-backs. This time of year is busy for me on account of writing annual letters. some of my friends do not begin their Christmas writing until after they receive my letter. I begin in October, for if I did all the w writing in December, I'd have to go into seclusion for the winter months to give my brain a rest. The idea of using ME as a starter. I needed a starter last week to help me write 2 business letters. After a dozen attempts I finally got up enough steam to start myself.

Story of Samuel Rogers' second marriage.

After Samuel Rogers first wife died, he sent for his cousin Rachel Bradshaw to act as housekeeper and care for the two children Mark and Cornelia. Samuel and Rachel were first cousins. Rachel's mother was Deborah Jenks wife of William Bradshaw and Samuel's mother was Margaret Jenks wife of Armstrong Rogers.

When she had been with him for two years Samuel came in one marning saying "Rachel the minister will be here at 12 o'clock noon to marry u us, be ready". Rachel was too surprised, shocked and dazed to reply. However, as she had been trained in the idea that a man's word was LAW she was ready at the appointed time. She told my father that she was in a daze at the time and for months afterwards. She had nev-er dreamed of marrying him and did not love him at the time, but love came to her with the coming of the children, and Samuel was a good practical husband.

During her life in Bath she had seen the progress of many love affairs and probably realized she had been denied the thrill and sweetness of a courtship. She said "I'm an old woman, almost 80 and never had a proposal of marriage", then she broke down and cried and ~~as~~ my father was sympathetic, he probably cried too while comforting her.

As the years passed confidence replaced fear as evidenced by an incident she told my mother.:

"Once upon a time" Samuel and Rachel planned to have a week's visit with Uncle Joe and his wife at Tamworth and hired a horse and buggy or phaeton to take them there. After they arrived Samuel and Joe went out to see the farm and all the accessories; when they returned, in two hours, Samuel said "Get ready Rachel, we are going home"^No we are not, we came to stay a week and we are going to stay" Samuel said NOTHING.

Mother was tickled pink to know that Rachel had enough gumption to assert herself.

THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

The first part of the history of the United States of America is the period from the discovery of the continent by Christopher Columbus in 1492 to the establishment of the first permanent English colony in 1607. This period is characterized by the exploration of the continent by various European powers, the discovery of gold and silver, and the establishment of the first permanent English colony in Jamestown, Virginia.

The second part of the history of the United States of America is the period from 1607 to 1776. This period is characterized by the growth of the colonies, the struggle for independence from Great Britain, and the establishment of the United States of America. The colonies grew in population and wealth, and they began to assert their independence from Great Britain. The struggle for independence culminated in the American Revolution, which resulted in the establishment of the United States of America.

The third part of the history of the United States of America is the period from 1776 to 1865. This period is characterized by the expansion of the United States, the struggle for slavery, and the Civil War. The United States expanded its territory westward, and it became a major power in the world. The struggle for slavery culminated in the Civil War, which resulted in the abolition of slavery and the preservation of the Union.

The fourth part of the history of the United States of America is the period from 1865 to 1945. This period is characterized by the Reconstruction era, the Gilded Age, and the Progressive Era. The Reconstruction era was a period of rebuilding the South after the Civil War. The Gilded Age was a period of rapid economic growth and industrialization. The Progressive Era was a period of reform and social progress.

The fifth part of the history of the United States of America is the period from 1945 to the present. This period is characterized by the Cold War, the Vietnam War, and the space age. The Cold War was a period of tension between the United States and the Soviet Union. The Vietnam War was a conflict between the United States and North Vietnam. The space age is a period of exploration and discovery in space.

The history of the United States of America is a story of growth, struggle, and achievement. It is a story of a nation that has become a major power in the world, a nation that has fought for freedom and justice, and a nation that has achieved great things.

Don't be alarmed
I'm not quite as fierce as I sound.

Had I been there instead of Rachel when Samuel delivered his marriage order, I'm quite sure I'd have done one of two things. Treated him with cold contempt or would have gone out of the room slamming the door hard enough to shake the village after ROARING a decided NO at him- then Samuel would have been in a daze and wondered WHAT HIT him. One thing is certain I would NOT have been ready that day nor any other day when the minister came. He ought, at least to have had the courtesy to have talked the matter over with her.

I told Lillian the story last summer. She said grandma had lived with an aunt where she was a household drudge (Her aunt Rachel Jenks was the wife of Malachi File and they had 25 sons according to Dr Burleigh) If Rachel lived in that family she had little or no time for anything else but drudgery. Lillian said grandma's education was so limited that she was too ignorant to know what romance meant and that she did not need it. I did not agree with her, but, as I did not want to start an argument that would raise her blood pressure I said little or nothing Grandma could read and write and she "was' not so dumb" My mother said grandma was naturally smart and had many original ideas and she regretted circumstances prevented her from having a real education. Grandpa was a good business man; both of them were descended from Jo- Joseph Jenks who took out the first patent in America in 1646. He was a very clever man, also his son Joseph and grandson Joseph, all prominent men. Last summer I had the privilege of seeing the interior of the home of the first Joseph Jenks in Saugus, Mass. The house was built in 1636 but not occupied by Jenks until after he came to America in 1643. I got some very good pictures and from four persons in Saugus, Lynn and Pawtucket got books, pamphlets and pictures without asking for them. I had some amusing experiences. I hope to go again ^{and to} bring back more pictures and desired information. If we ever have time for a really long talk I can tell you more about their life in Bath, and may be able to explain certain things.

Dear Ray:-

Was I glad to see your handwriting on a letter in my mailbox?? "I'll say so" I hid me to the lawn swing in the back yard where I read it thru twice or thrice. No letter too long for me, but of course reading of a letter is less work than the writing and the mental effort involved. Knowing of your strenuous winter of writing, the care of your mother and other duties and having had some disturbing dreams, I was rather anxious to know if your head was still above water. It was a relief to read your letter enclosed in one from Lillian. There have been times in my own life when I did not write for months. I received a 35 page letter from my daughter Jean telling of the auto trip she took with my sister's husband and the nurse who (sister) cared for her. As she did not keep a diary of her trip I am saving the letter for her.

Ray dear, your patience, love and devotion to your mother has repaid whatever sacrifices she made, many, many times and in the spirit land she will be able to help you more than she did in the last years of her life. A real and unselfish mother does not regret making sacrifices; she forgets them and does not remind you of them. You are ONE IN A THOUSAND, there are ungrateful children, but no one can say of you "How sharper than a serpent's tooth it is to have a thankless child." It will take some time to adapt yourself to life without her, but after reading the beautiful thoughts expressed in your letter, I am sure your philosophy will help you through the trying days. The absorbing work that is waiting for you will be your salvation. Time is a great healer, and when you have reached the age of 60 you will feel younger than you do now.

The comparison of your mother to a proud hollyhock reminded me that a few days before receiving your letter I saw some tall hollyhocks looking at me from behind a fence; the thought of your mother came to me, then as I went on I saw two tall sunflowers, one of which was in full bloom and with green stalk and leaves, the other with its head drooped and full of ripened seeds, its stalk and leaves brown and dry.

I thought of youth and old age. And now we are told that age is a matter of mind, and that by constructive thinking and doing, our later years can be our best years and that is what I hope mine will be.

Aquarians are advised to be careful of their health this year and the forecast that the domestic side would be emphasized seems to be true in our case, you with your mother and I busy around the home-mostly outdoors, making changes &c &c &c . If conditions are favorable next year I hope to take another trip and things ought to be done now instead of waiting until the last minute. The other trips were so very beneficial that I'd like to go once more anyway. Edith Perry says now that I've gotten off to a good start that I will make 4 or 5 more trips. In normal times perhaps, but in these uncertain times one hardly knows what to do.

I thank you for the pictures of your mother in the beautiful background of your garden. I know you are glad the pictures were taken before her face expression changed. My mother was fairly active until a week before she died. Her face changed before she went into a coma. I sat by her the last 2 hours and kept my fingers on her pulse during the last 45 minutes; with her ^{final} ~~last~~ breath it seemed she was going down a steep toboggan slide. The pictures of the rockery and the other flowers are wonderfully clear cut. When I look at the rows of new apartment ~~he~~ houses that have been recently built without porches or gardens I pity the occupants. Of course they can go to the beaches or parks on Saturdays and Sundays, but human beings were not created to be cooped up behind 4 walls the other 5 days of the week.

I made a memo of the Mayflower Index numbers before going down town on Monday- then forgot to take it. However I looked in one Williams book for possible connections of a Rogers and Williams -result nothing. Then I found 2 volumes of Massachusetts Williams. typewritten on yellow copy paper, and carbon copy at that, some of the type was blurred and there was no index. Some of that family married into the Thomas Rogers (Mayflower) family. The Williams ancestry is as long as the Jenks and is traced thru a long line of Welshkings. Jenks lineage goes to 151-154 B.C. to Deffrobani former site of Constantinople-now Istanbul- Some day I will compare the two lineages to see if there is any connection along the way. Thomas Rogers has a fine lineage and if we can prove our descent from these two families-Rogers and Williams-we will have good cause to be proud.

Sept. 12-

You know the story of Miles Standish, John Alden and Priscilla. It seems that Miles was a widower when he commissioned John to inform Priscilla of his intentions and how she said "Why don't you speak for yourself John?" -Good for Priscilla- Miles found a wife ~~and~~ in the Williams family and his son Alexander Standish in time was married to Sarah Alden, dau. of John and Priscilla Alden. Another record shows John Freeman, son of Nathaniel and Bethiah Freeman mar. Abigail Williams in 1792 and raised a family of 10 children. I did not have time to get more than half thru the first volume. If there are no results will try New Jersey and New York Williams if the books are available.

I hope you will get a car for one has to make so many stops on a genealogy hunt that bus service is inadequate. When you go to Pr. Ed. Co. and are in or near Ameliasburg, you will enjoy meeting Mr and Mrs Fred. File. I think he is postmaster and is interested in family history. We discovered that his gr-grandmother Rachel Jenks File was my gr-gw-aunt. Her husband Malchior File is buried in North Fredericksburg in a cemetery near the Town Hall. If you should happen to be browsing around there with your camera will you please take a picture of his tombstone. He was b. 1773 and d. 1825. Dr Burleigh says he was gfather of 25 children.

Be careful not to lose that rain check, it might come in handy some time when you want to come in out of the rain at 1004 No. Curson Ave.

Will try to write the stories for my next letter. We are going to Santa Barbara to-morrow, Louise's birthday. She wants everything connected with it to happen ON THAT DAY. She can live on thrills. If she ever acquires a husband he will have to be the kind who enjoys giving as well as receiving thrills. No phlegmatics for her. Were you here you would enjoy the trip with us. As she wants me to be present at the informal banquet at the close of the soft ball season I will probably stay a week which will give me a chance to attend 2 lip-reading classes.

The cartoons you enclosed are really funny. The one of the man surprising a burglar. and was relieved that his wife was not cleaning house reminded me of my father. How he despised that time of the year! Mother was not brought up to housework and at housecleaning time the whole house was in a turmoil. However she ^{finally} had sense enough to have the worst part done when he was in Montreal buying goods. The same cartoons are in our Hollywood paper.

Ray, I'm sending you a book that was given to me because the cover was damaged. The inside looks better than that of my copy of 25 years. I covered it, then did not like the cover so I have slipped it in an extra book cover I had. The title is "In tune with the Infinite" by Ralph Waldo Trine. It has been translated into 20 languages and is still in demand after 43 years. You may like to pick it up occasionally when in the mood for the help it will give.

And now, dear boy, I must stop for there is much to be done before tomorrow.

My best thoughts go to you.

Marie

Dear Ray:-

The following may be one of my "wild ideas" or as my chum says "Castles in the air" She is too conservative to build them but she enjoys many a laugh at mine. Well--here goes--On being informed that Canadians will be permitted to visit the U.S. for 28 days following Aug. 28, I thought in view of what may be ahead of the U.S. and Canada during the next two years and, that if it were possible for you to obtain leave, it would be a good time for you to enjoy a much needed change and relaxation in Southern California. Of course if your mother is still with you I realize you cannot leave, otherwise if you can manage to have the scissors applied to the red tape with a sharp quick cut I'll be glad to have you come.

I do not know why I have not heard from you since March; if anything I wrote caused offense, I'm sorry. Louise says when she sees a certain twinkle in my eyes she knows I'm not serious, but when one is more than 3,000 miles distant the twinkle cannot be seen, but my old friends know it is there and, as they understand my jokes they answer accordingly.

On account of leaving for the north so soon after Easter I did not really appreciate my Easter cards until after my return. As you know the tulip is the Aquarian flower, and those on the card you sent are really lovely. It has a place in my greeting card album.

My sister passed away June 27, and I went north again from Santa Barbara My daughter from Oakland and I represented the family at the funeral. My brother-in-law and niece were so glad to have us with them and that I was not in the east at the time. I have been home since July, 12, except a week end spent in San Diego.

Hoping my idea will be workable and that I'll be seein' you

Dear Ray:-

No, I'm not owing you a letter. Don't be alarmed this one will not be quite as long as the one I sent you from Oakland.

I sent your name to Joseph Rogers of Cleveland asking him if he had heard from you. I quote his reply:

" I have not heard from Mr Freeman of Brighton, but if I can contribute any data on the Rogers family that would be helpful to him, I shall be only too glad to do so. Perhaps some time this summer when I am in Canada, we can get together for a visit."

I'm rather anxious to know if he belongs to our Rogers line but I did not ask him any questions, preferring to let you have that pleasure. David Vallean writes that he has introduced you to the Boston Transcript's Saturday Edition. I was going to do that myself, but he beat me to it. The Saturday edition is in the Santa Barbara Library and the items from it are filed at the Los Angeles Genealogical Library, but do not know if S.B. files them. .

Would you like to do me a favor??? Tell me how to crowd 36 hours of activity into 18 hours without being any sleepier (-I'm seldom tired, but do get sleepy around midnight-strange as it seems) than after 18 hours. Are you asking me the same??

Get busy with the answer.

Marie.

Excerpts from introduction in Vol. 1, of First Settlers of Piscataway and Woodbridge-Olde East New Jersey, by Orra E Monnette of Los Angeles, California. There are seven volumes.

Monnette was the originator of the Genealogy Library at the Los Angeles Central Library.

Genealogy is personified history.

History deals with the records created and the acts performed by human beings. It is established upon the first, glorified by the second.
A family tree or lineage is a family chart of identification. It establishes lineal descent, reveals kinship and preserves biography.

Yet like all research work, scientific inquiry and deeper investigation, the field of genealogy has passed from the stage of an avocation or amusement alone into a forceful form of historical scholarship.
Since biography as a forceful form of literary excellence has risen to greater degrees of intellectual excellence in the last few years, so genealogy as a mode of intellectual achievement has gathered an increasing number of adherents. .

Libraries, societies and publishers have ceased to view this sphere as purely selfish and uninteresting, but they have actively promoted its greater influence and wider activities.

The publication of genealogy and historical magazines, family genealogies and other similar compilations is large. The number of careful searchers and compilers ~~is large~~ has rapidly increased in the recent decade.

Genealogy is a high-minded, practical and serviceable pursuit.
In addition to those who follow it for the simple love of the game, it brings in return fulsome rewards to all who interest themselves in it and who give it ardent support.

Last October when I called on a former neighbor in Moorhead, Minn. She said "I always liked your father. He always said something pleasant or told a funny joke - was genial, thoughtful & kind - I liked your mother too - she was bright & chatty (not catty) but I liked your father better" (He was an Aquarian) Louise reminds me of him in some ways when she has a new joke - she does not rest until she tells it to most of her friends - when she has new clothes - she dons them presto - to let others know she has them &c &c -
When I can't see the point in a joke she says "Oh mother you are so English."

In one of the charts I sent you - I had May Hellman Rogers - married ^{to} Piergeles then divorced - In your book why mention divorce? put 1st husband ^{not} 2nd husband Ruth Dorsey was divorced from her 1st husband - I wrote 1st husband Kemp - 2nd Deukert - The first was a war romance - He is married again and lives in Toronto.

I did not mention my brother's marriage - He was divorced from his first wife - She kept the one child - a boy - when she married again the Rogers was dropped and his step father's name assumed - He is married - has 1 son 1 dau. The latter was married a year ago - lives in Washington D.C. - no use opening closed chapters - My oldest daughter's first marriage is a closed chapter too - The second marriage - maybe soon and will be happier.

7 When we lived in Bath I remember Samuel Rogers 1st wife & baby David were buried close to St John's church on the south side about midway between front and rear - Lillian asked me if I remembered the location She remembered it too - Since the ^{original} church was burned in 1925 - all traces ^{of the graves} have been obliterated.

I like your idea of a Rogers bronze memorial tablet in the church ^{St John's} - Clara Davy Johnston - says my Uncle Will Davy deserves one too as he gave at least half the money for the new church - Clara says he gave most of it - He had the 3 Davy memorial windows placed in the rear of the church - In the eastern U.S. churches are many Memorial tablets. By the way if you have no picture of the Memorial windows & interior of St John's church would you like to have one?

Ask me something easier than naming the probable sisters of Samuel Rogers or daughters of Armstrong - You may be able to locate a family bible by questioning.

Ray - Why don't we set our sub-conscious minds to work to tell us the names we need ^{any} of the missing links?
Also to get in touch with the spirits of our ancestors to send those names to us thru the ether.

Just read your letter again - Name is John Cairns

6 That caused the death of both Melissa & Lizzie.
Lizzie was Uncle Joe's younger daughter - She was our housemaid - good - patient and faithful - I can remember that much - When Mother saw she was not able to continue working - she took her to Odessa to Melissa Cairns' home - I went with them (As near as I can figure my age was 11 at the time) and the little toddler I saw at Melissa's was probably the Robert Cairns of Odessa - I do not know his father's first name, When I told Charlie Cairns of Napawee about it he said the boy was ^{John} his father.
Now for the Rogers fire - I do remember being told of a Rogers house being burned on the land east of Dr. Kennedy's house (our family dr) Samuel Rogers owned that land all the way to the water's edge - It occurred many years before my father was born so the 4 boys may have been Armstrong's - I do not know who built the Rogers homestead more than 100 years ago - May have been Armstrong or perhaps Samuel - The latter's Carriage factory was located in the field between the house & bay.
I have another story for you - All the stories are written I'll have written's Cramp & you - well - - -

The second is correct - From Arthur Aylsworth book - Esther Aylsworth, b. 1776 - Mar. 1793 - d. 1803 leaving 6 children: Eliza, Robert, Anne, Nial, James, Esther

The children were cared for by relatives

Frank Perry of Napanee who is a descendant of Robert told me there was no issue by Robert's second wife and 12 children by the third - Frank did not know the name of wife No. 2 & I've forgotten the name of No. 3 - My gr-gr-aunt Hannah Perry wife of Benjamin Aylsworth took one or two of the children & raised them with her own family - She had 15 children 13 of whom lived to be grand parents - Her husband died on their 66th Wed. anniversary - When she died about age 86 her descendants numbered about 250 - I took a picture of their monuments in the Violet Cemetery and ~~her~~
 gr-gr-grandson ^{David Aylsworth} lives in the old ~~Barren~~ Aylsworth ^{North of Bath} homestead, of which his wife gave me a picture - My mother and gr-grandmother Perry (wife of Peter Perry M.P.) had visited Aunt Hannah which was the reason for my interest.

My note book is at home but I remember Uncle Joe Rogers 1st wife was — Nece 2nd wife Nancy Nece or Neese - Neese family subject to tuberculosis step brother Daniel, youngest son of Jas ^{Jenks} Jenks I by his 2nd wife - I spent much time calling on people in Rhode Island, travelling on buses and in taxis, trying to find descendants of Daniel with no luck - A Jenks lives about 6 blocks from us in Sallywood on whom I plan to call after my return. The tradition is based on a statement by Alexander Ross - a fine man, but he made a wrong guess that time. I also exploded a Perry family tradition - another incident to tell you - quite interesting too.

Last August, I went with Mr & Mrs Herbert Fife of Naperville to the home of Fred Fife of Ameliasburg in P. E. Co. In the afternoon, we called on Edgar Jenks at Consecow - He is illiterate & at times mentally off - such a pity - He told me "Joseph's ancestors lived in New Jersey and Joseph's father was a British officer during the Rev. War" - no such name in the book of British officers and none in the N.J. books & records either in the Newberry or Los. A. Libraries - I wrote him of my failure to locate them. Before he wrote again he got information from his first cousin Mary Jenks Ellis that Joseph's parents lived in Long Island - thence to Albany N.Y. - thence to P.E. Co. Ontario - That statement

Edgar Jenks address - Consecow, Ontario - P. E. Co. #2.

With few exceptions the records are from the Dutch Reformed Church.

If you look at your Rogers records - that I sent you I'm sure you will find Armstrong Rogers wife was Margaret Jenks - who was daughter of Joseph Jenks V. E. L. - we know now that Uncle Joe was named for his grand father Joseph Jenks - Grandma Rogers (Rachel Bradshaw) Mother Deborah Jenks was wife of William Bradshaw - so Grandma & Grandpa Samuel were first Cousins - The next time ^{we meet} I see you I'll tell you the story of their marriage - & if your curiosity or interest will let you wait that long I'm having a tedious time trying to find the father-grand and gr-grandfather of Joseph Jenks V. E. L. to connect him with the other end of the line - We thought we were descended from Gov. Jos. Jenks' daughter Mary. but I spent hours trying to prove it. to no avail & came to the conclusion that our descent is possibly from Gov. Jenks' sister Mary - daughter of Jos. Jenks II grand dau. of Jos. Jenks I & 2nd wife of her father's

T Notes pertaining to the Rogers Family

Many. Many years ago when we were talking about pirates my father said we ^(Rogers family) were connected with Capt.

Kidd thru a second marriage. In my search I have not come across the name. He said Kidd was not as black as he was painted. Not being interested in family history I did not ask why and how. There is an account of Capt. Kidd in any good encyclopedia. The following account is from New York Vital records p. 591 - an old book at the House of Revolutionary Library in L.A.

"Capt. William Kidd sailed the Antigua Merchantman to New York where he married the widow of William Cox, Merchant. Being commissioned to capture pirates he sailed to Madagascar where, being unsuccessful in his primary objects, he sought to retrieve his advantage by capturing merchantmen. He returned to the vicinity of New York with considerable booty, but was apprehended, sent to England, tried, condemned, and suffered death as a pirate" - (Hanging)

"His biography has been preserved in detail in a former number of this Manual" - "Extracts of genealogical value taken from N.Y. Corporation Manual" That is the title of the book composed of good legible pages from several volumes. The other pages were so damp and mildewed, that they were illegible. See see if I can find where a Rogers married a William Cox

I think the date was about 1645.

will be of any use I'll be glad to send it. I gave him the address of a Laroute Perry who ought to give him much needed information.
Newport News is not far from Washington D.C. Any if I go east next year I may see him and perhaps add another boy to my family - altho if he is a gr-grandson of Ebenezer Perry he is probably nearer my age for Ebenezer was 5 years older than my gr-grandfather

Peter

I know of Edward Perry of Newburgh but when I was in Napanea in 1936 Frank Perry told me he was not living.
I certainly would like to meet Mrs Nora Perry Moore as we are connected ^{with} ~~the~~ The Perry - Jarks and Rogers families and she might be interested in data I have. There were places I wanted to go from Napanea but the buses were either inconvenient or none. Now I wish I were 20 years younger ^{any} had my own car - taxis are real necessities now-a-days - if one wants to go places.
If I go to Canada again I hope to spend several days or a week at ⁱⁿ Deseroute - a former residence remodelled into an inn. I have the name at home. If you write to Mrs Moore again please send her the enclosed copy more in detail

While we are slaying the game of catching at straws, it looks as if the wind has blown another straw over on our side which may or may not help you solve the ^{8^m} Rogers tangle years ago (Boswell Collins) heard of me thru Mrs J. H.
Perry of Whitby he wrote telling me of his descent from Ebenezer Perry & of Joseph Edgerton Rogers also of the same descent. Indeed they are cousins - Joseph Rogers is writing a history of the Perry family - see address on back of enclosed envelope - Was there an Edgerton in Canada who was connected with educational books? - Well, the chances are Joseph E Rogers is either Canadian born or his parents were & if you think the effort worth while - you can at least write to him. As Collins is doing clerical work for the book - he may be a co-author as he wants all data to be sent to him (on the Perrys) he forwards it to Rogers - then Rogers returns it to him (Collins) Collins asked for bibles, wills, letters, photos &c to be sent to him - by registered mail. Great Scott!! he want the earth with its fulness thereof. I sent him my Perry lineage and a list of questions. I ~~do~~ not know how much material he has gathered - If what I have mentally - I can stand that - and plenty of good clean fun - but inharmous, bickering, suspicious, jealousies &c &c - wear me out physically & mentally.

They ^(boys) are a sensible trio - Aint, Lucky?

By the way, has the war caused postponement of

No, I don't exactly fancy the title Southern Mamma it sounds too much like Southern Mamma - one of those good natured, lovable colored Mammies - how I'd like to have one in my home to lift the responsibilities - I have a woman to do the heavy work - but that is not every day.

Later - Jean just brought me 4 letters - one is from George Collins who is "delighted to find some one who has gone definitely into 'The Perry Tree'". He that Rehoboth was in Vermont instead of Massachusetts and he lives in Virginia - close enough to know better - I see where I can be of real service in supplying knowledge he and Rogers need for the book so this woman will be busy at the type writer when she returns from the North (I'm to have a copy of the book) He does not seem to know any details about our Mass. ancestors - Perhaps he is not an Aquarian of future benefit than with destructive thoughts of self pity & self centeredness that deplete body and mind. Aquarians - being in a mental sign, need foods that feed the brain, blood and nerves - Our hunger for knowledge will keep us ever on the move - so that life will never be dull for us - If we tire of books and writing - there is music and different forms of recreation - and work

Here is a paragraph from Synn's open letter to Aquarians ^{for April}

"This most active period 1st to 11th is followed by a lull until the 14th - Take advantage of it by letting down nervous tension - You Aquarians are forgetful about relaxation as you are usually all tied up into the knot of an idea with a fixity that is grim. (The Rogers Knot) Thanks to those restless brains of yours, much of the world's progressive thinking gets done, but you must remember to take time out.

"Towards the end of last month there was a shifting of emphasis in your life - One that will last for the next 2 years" I wonder if the above 2 lines will affect all Aquarians - I did not feel any change. How about you?

Ray- you rascal- if you ever dare to broadcast and herald my birthday to the extent of '3 Cheers-a tiger and hats in the air' before I am 90 I'll-I'll-I'll take that rabbit's foot away from you- then when you and your girl friend fall on the ice- perhaps you will be good- and silent on my birthdays- It's bad enough to have Louise broadcast the fact in Saute

Freeport, Illinois last June where I spent a day with Mr & Mrs Jenks from whom I purchased a history of

As I stepped off the train he said "You look like to Oakland to stay a week with Jean - My niece and brother-in-law want me to stop over on my return trip.

same for my niece. To-day is rainy and windy

Easter was cloudy & cool in Santa Barbara, but not unpleasant. like in most parts of the east.

Thank you Ray... for the lovely Easter cards and the sentiments thereon, also for the snap shot of your

If your garden of 1940 shows the profuse bloom of 1918 - how do you find the time for it? One can work in the gardens during the long evenings in the east, which is one thing we do not have in California - no twilight here, and the early morn is so damp especially nearer the coast fogs and dews are very heavy and begin early -

Dear Ray:-

Yes. I'm on the road again. About 50 years ago one of my friends told me I was like a flea. I think you are under my finger, then when I lift it, you have hopped off some place else. Another said "We are always going to the station to kiss ^{Marie} ~~me~~ good-bye because she is always going away some place". The former friend is in heaven. The latter spent the winter in Florida. However I plan to stay in California this year ^{my} part of next anyway. I am not on a pleasure trip. I was called to Watsonville on account of the serious illness of my sister who recently had ^{more} 2 strokes and a cerebral hemorrhage with other complications. Sometimes she is rational then irrational. No one can say positively when the end will come. She is a Fire Sign Subject of Aries and the chances are she will linger for an indefinite time. My niece was glad I came to talk over family matters &c and my little grand niece cannot understand why Auntie Marie does not live with her all the time to tell her stories & read to her. She followed me around with an armfull of books. Neither her mother nor the nurse pay enough attention to her or take time to read to her. The child is hungry for stories & play. Everytime she says "Auntie Marie - don't go away - stay with me".

Writing from Santa Barbara

Dear Ray:-

This will be a partial answer to your quick-action letter that was forwarded to me. SO*O*O you are thinking of me as basking in the sunshine from early morn until eve. Well- you have another think coming when I tell you I am a busy woman who has to control a tendency to have too many irons on the fire and who is trying to live one day at a time. My letter writing has lagged somewhat to such an extent that some of my correspondents have written a second time asking WHY???? I have just finished a letter to David Valteau of Oshawa enclosing some genealogy lists he asked for. Perhaps Dr Burleigh has written you that his 5th gr-grandparents Josiah and Rebekah Perry were my 4th gr-grandparents and his 4th gr-grandmother Mary Perry Walker was a sister of my 3rd gr-grandfather David Perry-after that the lines diverge. I have sent him enough genealogy data to keep him walking on air for awhile.

When I went to Canada after an absence of 53 years I did not expect to add 3 nice boys to my list. Who are they? David Valteau- Dr Burleigh and W.R. Freeman. My mind will not have a chance to collect cobwebs with while you THREE keep me on the move looking up information. However I like to do it, so ask me another and I'll do my darndest to answer.

I can answer some of the questions now. The others will have to wait until I go to Hollywood and consult Grandma Rogers family bible. Louise will have to attend a convention in Long Beach while I will put in a busy time at the libraries and on various errands and business matters. I will ask about the cemetery records of N.Y. State. I have found much wanted names and dates in the Massachusetts records that way. The Historical Societies in Los Angeles are concerned with the early Spanish history of this locality. When I cannot find what I want at the Genealogy room at the Central Lib. I go to the Sons of Revolution Lib. and Sons of Colonial Wars. Sometimes I find it-sometimes not. The thought has occurred to me that the Ontario Historical Books might possibly be in the office of the British Consul, so I will ask about them.

By the way do you still have the letter I wrote you from Napanee after calling on Charlie Cairns?. His grandmother Melissa Rogers Cairns was Uncle Joe's daughter. If I am not mistaken, his sister is the wife of Irvine Burleigh who is first cousin to Dr Burleigh. Charlie said his father Robert Cairns and Mark Rowses used to talk a good deal about the Rogers family. If you have not written to him you might do it now. Robert Cairns, Odessa. I cannot answer any questions about Uncle Joe. Was Ben Rogers your gr-grandfather? I've heard my mother speak of Uncle Ben who lived in or near Brighton.

After filling out your enclosed questionnaire I decided it would be more comprehensive if I typed the answers. Both sheets are enclosed.

Don't worry about the birthday card. I'd prefer a snap shot of YOU. Have you a photo of Samuel Rogers? .

Am enclosing more clippings that may be of interest. Marian asked me one day "Do you think you CAN send ONE letter without enclosing clippings"? Yes I can and do, for every one does not like clippings and would not even read them, while others read them pass them on. Some of my clippings have been passed on to 6 different persons and kept by the 6th. All kinds of people in this world.

This epistle from Lowry to Freeman will be continued in 2 weeks, so be prepared for another?????

Dear Ray:-

Your letter was one of 13 that were handed to me by the postman, (Unlucky number? No, indeed. Thirteen is one of my lucky numbers) and I enjoyed it more than any of the others. The card showing Scrooge and the turkey is a companion to one received from a Washington D.C. friend showing Tiny Tim saying "Merry Christmas to us all". Both cards will be placed on the same page in my greeting card album. The fine woman who sent it has obstacles to contend with, delaying the carrying out of her ideals. Her spirit, like yours, is looking for better things in the future. Thank YOU Ray also for the pretty hankie which will remind me of the giver every time I see it.

If my letters are worth keeping, so are yours. You are a dear impulsive boy to suggest making a M.E.L. book. Who is the enthusiastic Aquarian now? And just because my letter happened to strike the right chord when it was needed. It is well the year was almost at the end, for if any more nice surprise bouquets were handed to me I might be going around with an inflated EGO. Between you and Louise I'll have to watch my step in more ways than one. Louise idealizes me; I tell her others may have differences of opinion as to my merits. One minute I am "the best little mother in the whole wide world", the next minute I'm the "biggest little rascal" especially when she tries to dress me up with lip stick, chasing me all over the house and out doors-of course she wins and tells me if she was an obstreperous child that she came by it honestly. I'm not anemic-I do not need lip stick. Now she says I must have a perky hat. Ye gods! with my features! I look like a clown in some of the present day millinery contraptions and seldom wear a hat unless I go to the city and then only to protect my hair. The most becoming hats are in black. I do not wear black. However the new styles are said to be more conservative-its about time.

After I go to Santa Barbara the latter part of February I will write my chronological record for you, but it will be nothing remarkable. Fifty years ago one could not graduate from any course without the higher mathematics, and as arithmetic was the cause of one nervous breakdown it would have been foolish to take a risk in studies in which I would fail and which would have been of no benefit to me. I had a post graduate year in literature. My teacher advised me to take up journalism as my life work. The sentiments regarding women in newspaper offices was different to that of the present day. I would have loved the work. That is in the past -no use worrying about it.

Two years ago I did write 15 pages of my autobiography and have not looked at it since, no doubt it will need revision. I tried to write the story of my life in Bath last summer, for Dr Burleigh, but the old town kept me so busy doing other things that I wrote only a few lines, and now, some Bath folks are asking me to change my mind about not going there this year. It will be wiser to stay in California in order to complete unfinished ^{work} that has been pushed aside for more than 2 years and which will keep me as busy as I want to be for more than a year, things that ought to be disposed of while I am living.

No, I'm quite sure the Haldimand Papers are not in the L.A. Library unless they are in the History room. I got no help from them in Toronto. If my memory serves me right I saw the thesis you wrote about, the afternoon I was at the U Library in Kingston. The girl in charge went off duty at 4 p.m. and the time was about 3.30. I went to the stack room with her and she found other books that I could take to the reading room until 6 p.m. but the thesis is not let out unless some one is in charge in the reading room. I could have returned at 7 o'clock, but as I planned going to Clayton N.Y. the next day with a parcel of blankets to send by mail I did not return. In 1938 Dr. Burleigh read a type written account of Robert Perry from a book he had - probably the thesis - it was similar to one I found in a History of Rutland Vt.

lecturing, You ask about Jupiter in your 3rd house. That house is related to the intellect, literary ability, poetry, singing, writing, printing, publications, advertising, publicity, neighbors, local activities. Jupiter is master of the vibrations of growth, expansion, development of the inner and outer man, helps you to be worth more and to have more. It is the planet of greater fortune, not only powerful in himself, but in conjunction with other planets; he exercises a far reaching influence on mankind.

Mar 17 - On Jan 27, 1890 43 days from Dec. 15, (each day represents a year of life, your mother had progressed 43 years) and from that day you two have progressed side by side thru Aquarius and are almost thru Pisces. It is a rare occurrence, but it explains the conditions under which you have lived altho you COULD have changed them had you tried hard enough, but would you have been any better off? Air fans the fire, and fire cannot burn without air - you know what happens when you are away from home.

Those pesky little nuisances that tag you thru 2 or 2½ days are due to the passing of the moon from one sign to another. I have them too and when I make no headway with what I'm doing, I stop and either go out some place or do something else. I should have said the moon's approximate time in each sign is 2½ days along with the squares, trines conjunctions, parallels &c of the planets.

February is a very hard month for elderly persons, especially the latter part, the vitality is lowered, and many have heart attacks, if your mother survives that period be watchful of her condition in her polarity sign which is Gemini-May, 22 to June 21. Was it during that time last year that she was ill with a summer cold? How complex human beings are, even animals and every thing in the natural kingdom are affected by planetary vibrations. Our ancestors knew nothing about astrology, but they felt and were influenced by the vibrations - they did not know WHY.

Jan 15 Yes, old homesteads can be snatched away by fire or be razed. When in Moorhead last October, I was surprised to see an up to date colonial house on the site of our former home, and was dazed for a minute. All the other houses were in their usual places, but ours was gone. I called on an old neighbor who told me it had been razed and the present house was built for the Norwegian Lutheran minister. Altho it was built in 1882, there was no sagging of the foundation, it was well built and comfortable. Of course the ceilings were high, and coal is expensive, the winters long, and the new owners figured it would be better to raze it and build a new one.

When in Santa Barbara I HOPE to have a chance to read THE ARK. For all I have planned to accomplish the days will have to be twice as long. The slow phlegmatics find the days tedious and shake their heads at the air people whose minds are always racing ahead. Many times I have to put on the brakes. H

OWEN

However, I'll manage, by some hook or crook to indulge in some reading. I know your time will be full to overflowing if you resume your music studies. I have 12 philosophy letters by Manly Hall, a wonderful lecturer and writer that I am sending you-for keeps-You can put them aside until you have more leisure-When?-I dunno, but sometimes we need a change of thought after our minds have been travelling on a certain road.

I have a date in Los A to-morrow, have to prepare for the painters and paper hangers for Wed. or Thur. and in the mail to-day were 2 letters addressed to my sister who with her husband left Dec. 26 for Flint, Mich. to buy a new car after which they were to go to Florida and Texas, where I thought they would be for 2 months anyway. It will be just like them to come when they are in the midst of the work. Well I'll not cross my bridge before I come to it. One thing must not be forgotten and that is to have this type writer adjusted- it does not space right, and when I'm rattling away I do not notice the mistakes until afterwards.

Was you mother confused during the Christmas season? No matter how you tried to keep excitement away from her a sensitive person can feel something unusual in the air.

Mars begins a new cycle this year, which means, warfare, high taxes, changes in governments and unrest. In spite of it may you have a measure of success, peace and comfort and the joy of hopes realized.

INTERPRETATION OF MUSIC KEYS.

- * C-Major--Expresses feeling in a pure, certain and decisive manner.
It is furthermore expressive of innocence, of a powerful resolve, of manly earnestness, and deep, religious feeling.
- * C-Minor--Is expressive of softness, longing and sadness, also of earnestness and a passionate intensity. At the same time, C Minor lends itself most effectively to the portraiture of the supernatural.
- * G-Major--The favorite key of youth, expresses sincerity of faith, quiet love, calm meditation, simple grace, pastoral life and a certain humor and brightness.
- * G-Minor--Expresses sometimes sadness, or on the other hand quiet and sedate joy, a gentle grace with a slight touch of dreamy melancholy, occasionally rising to a romantic elevation. It effectively portrays the sentimental, and when used for expressive passionate feelings, the sweetness of its character will deprive the passion of all harshness and fierceness.
- * D-Major--Expresses majesty, grandeur and pomp, and adapts itself well to triumphal processions, festival marches and pieces in which stateliness is the prevailing feature.
- * D-Minor--Expresses a subdued feeling of melancholy, grief, anxiety and solemnity.
- * A-Major--Full of confidence and hope, radiant with love, and redolent with simple genuineness, cheerfulness, excels all the other keys in portraying sincerity of feeling. Almost every composer of note has breathed his sincerest thoughts in that favorite key.
- * A-Minor--Is expressive of tender womanly feeling; at the same time most effective for exhibiting the quiet, melancholy sentiment of the northern nations, and lends itself very readily to the description of Oriental character, but it also expresses joy.
- * E-Major--The brightest and most powerful key expresses joy, magnificence splendor and the highest brilliancy.

- * E-Minor--Represents grief, mournfulness and restlessness of spirit.
 - * B-Major--A key seldom used-expresses in fortissimo, boldness and pride, in pianissimo, purity and the most perfect clearness.
 - * B-Minor--That very melancholy key tell^s of quiet expectation and patient hope. It has often been observed that nervous persons will sooner be affected by that key than by any other.
 - * F#Major--Sounds brilliant and very clear as Gb Major, or it expresses softness coupled with richness.
 - * F#Minor--That dark, mysterious and spectral key, is at the same time full of passion.
 - * C#Major--Is scarcely ever used; as DbMajor it is remarkable for its fullness of tone, and its sonorousness and euphony. It is the favorite key for nocturnes.
 - * DbMinor--Only used as C#Minor is the most intensely melancholy key.
 - * Ab Minor--Adapts itself well to funeral marches and is full of a sad and heart rending expression; in it we seem to hear the wailing of an oppressed and sorrowing heart.
 - * Eb Major--Is the key which boasts the greatest variety of expression. At once serious and solemn, it is the exponent of courage and determination, and gives to the piece a brilliant, firm and dignified character.
 - * Eb Minor--Is the darkest, most somber key of all. It is rarely used.
 - * Bb Major--Favorite key of classical compositions, admits expression of quiet contemplation.
 - * Bb Minor--Full of somber feeling. Rarely used.
 - * F Major--Full of peace and joy, also expresses a light passing regret, a mournful, but not a deeply sorrowful feeling. It is more available for the expression of religious sentiment.
 - * F Minor--A harrowing key, is especially full of melancholy, at times rising into a passion.

Sunday Evening.

Dear Ray:- This is not an answer to the nice fat letter I found in the mail box in Hollywood Thursday eve - (I did not have a chance to open it until 2 hours later) Nor to a previous letter - This week will be full to the brim with letters to be answered that are long over due. ^{my} Many other "must be done's" - after they are disposed of you will be my ^{next} victim. ^{my} I want you the letter will be long ^{my} fat, so be prepared with comfy slippers, lounging robe - easy chair - foot rest, (perhaps you prefer the table) lamp adjusted &c &c - You see, I'm taking pity on you in advance to save you from being fagged after reading a woman's last word (that's our privilege, you know). Several things require long answers - I'll try to condense them. As for thoughts travel faster than our

If the Hollywood Bural services are broadcast then Canadian radios you might enjoy listening in if you are not attending your own services - Easter Morning -

Letters it was not peculiar that you picked up your pen ^{as} wrote to the person whose name looked up, for my letter was due the next day

On Thursday I was wishing you were with us on the drive from Santa B. to Hollywood for Nature is very beautiful in Calif. This time of year ^{as} I know you would have enjoyed the trip so I ~~wrote~~ saw the long white envelope in the box I knew instinctively it was from you.

There are no N.Y. cemetery records in the libraries I mentioned in my last letter outside of the Dutch Church and those are the births, marriages & some deaths in the 17th & 18th centuries mostly the former. The librarians in the genealogy rooms at Central Library suggested the gen.
dept. in the State Library at Albany. She gave me the address of a genealogist in Washington D.C. who is very good and whose charges are reasonable

Mrs James T. Watts 514-19th St. N.W.
Washington D.C.

She knows her personally.

Pardon me Ray, for making the mistake again of Benjamin Rogers being your ^{and Armstrong} grand father. If I had paid more attention when my parents talked about the relatives I'd know more now. I'm enclosing your questionnaire with answers, and an extra sheet of records to set your mind at rest on certain points - "Ask me another"

Sunday Eve. Dec. 10., 1939.

Dear Ray:-

Was I GLAD to receive your letter? "I'll say so". The day was warm and I took time off from my occupation as Jack of all trades and master of SOME and hied me to the lawn swing to relax and read your "dis-gracefully long" and interesting letter. An interesting letter is NEVER too long for this girl. In my younger days I've written many a 25 and 30 page letter. I could do it now if I allowed myself free reign, but as we grow older we condense more.

Yes,I do understand what you are up against and that infinite patience, diplomacy &c has to be used to keep your sanity. It is pathetic. However the end cannot be far off and you are wise to plan an absorbing study like the B Mus. course to tide you over the re-action that will come after your mother goes. By the way when I attended the Con. of Music in Minneapolis I copied an "Interpretation of Music Keys" If you do not have one I will be glad to copy it for you.

When you receive the William Rogers transcript, it will not be necessary to copy it in entirety. Just an outline of the main facts with his wife's name and other connections, if stated. If the information is there it will save us much tedious searching and I will feel amply repaid by the knowledge that I was able to be of some help. You mention Miss Williams of Bath. Does she live in the village? She may be a descendant or a gr-gr-niece of Elijah Williams who married Roby Jenks my gr-gr-aunt and a daughter of Joseph Jenks U.E.L. It may be that Elijah Williams was a brother or relative of William Rogers wife, assuming her maiden name was Williams. Did you follow up the information Charlie Cairns of Napanee gave me? Of course the snap of the supposed Rogers house does not show off as well as the other one, yet it is respectable looking and would have shown better had you taken it horizontally. When some one is hurrying us we cannot do our best. Another minute or two would not have made any difference to Fred, altho he thought so.

Returning to Miss Williams--if she is a descendant of Elijah Williams and Roby Jenks she may be able to give me much needed information of Joseph's parents, grandparents and gr-grandparents. Dr Burleigh told me of a Mrs Galt a descendant of Malachi File and will ask her if she is a descendant of Malchior File and Rachel Jenks.

^{he} You ask about a position as a lecturer on music. Well-not on music alone, unless you had a position in one of the schools or colleges where you received a regular salary and give the lectures on the side. I was at the library last Wednesday, but as I had to meet Marian at 7.30 I did not attend the lecture.(see clipping)However, the room was filled, showing there are still people who are interested in hearing ABOUT music. Before my oldest daughter went to Oakland about 14 years ago she and I attended the meetings of the Music Teachers' Association; since then I have not gone to any and many of the older members have either passed away or moved elsewhere, so I am really out of touch with that part.. We are about 8½ miles from the center of Los Angeles. When we lived 5 miles nearer we used to go out more in the evening. There is something doing in Hollywood every night- the Community Sing every Tuesday night from Sept. to June of which I have been a member for 20 years. After an hour of singing by the audience we ~~are~~ privileged to hear some outstanding artist in music, stage, screen, radio, dance &c. To get information on the requirements for a position in a school or college I suggest writing to the State Board of Education at Sacramento, California. Also L.E. Behymer could tell you more about the music situation in California than any one. address

L.E. Behymer, Box Office Philharmonic Auditorium, Business Office., 427 West 5th Street, Los Angeles, Calif

It will not do any harm to get the information anyway. I am enclosing two U.S. stamps for you to send when you write these parties.

The war has made everything so uncertain, but one can prepare for the future in order to be ready when the world returns to normalcy- if it ever does in our time. When you do come to California do not forget to bring your sweater and overcoat. Nights are chilly, so are many days and the process of acclimatization requires at least 2 years.

The autumn is really the nicest time of the year in this state. Every day since my return Oct. 26, (the 46th anniversary of my marriage) has been an ideal day- last night the gentle rain from heaven fell upon the earth beneath and to day there is a smell of spring in the air. Hollywood Blvd has been turned into Santa Claus Lane until Dec. 31. The painted tin trees are ablaze with lights all colors of the rainbow- a beautiful sight- all the community centers have their own decorations and soon the out door trees will shed their brilliance here and there. Christmas carols were sung at the Com. Sing last week and when they sang "Joy to the world" I thought of war torn Europe where most of the people are afraid to ~~even~~ think of joy even in the neutral countries.

Monday-After the radio war news from Europe yesterday the announcer said Bishop Freeman would speak from the Washington Cathedral. He has a nice clear voice. Perhaps you heard him. I do not have time to listen to the radio often; when I do the programs are worth while.

Did you hear me laugh when I read that your birthdate is Jan. 27?

I was in Minneapolis at the time you first saw the light of day and of course never dreamed I would ever be corresponding with you years hence. I also first saw the little Swiss Edelweiss and how I did love that little flower. No wonder we are congenial and have no difficulty in understanding each other as you come in the first decan of Aquarius and I in the ~~second~~ third decan-Feb. 17. If I sent you my Rogers lineage you already know the date-Well-anyway the natives of the 1st and 3rd decans can be a real help to each other- you are positive, I am negative-Mother used to tell me that i was "such a positive child" Indeed some kind goddess can hand you many bouquets, but you must earn them, and you are earning them. Yes, Ray if we allow ourselves to be lonesome we can be very lonesome, but with our many interests we do not have time to even think about it. For the past 7 or 8 years I have not had the time to more than keep up my interest in the science except thru an Astrology Magazine, but if I allowed my self to write on it I could fill a book. It is an exact science and has helped me so much to understand people. You wonder WHY you have been held back. One reason is that you are progressing thru Pisces-a rather limiting sign, but have courage, you will be out of it in 3 or 4 years and in the meantime you can rule your adverse planets by "jus kip agon". Saturn, the restrictive planet is some where in your horoscope-you will have to let him see that he cannot down you. When you progress into Aries-the head sign-and ruled by Mars, your professional work will be favored and changes will come into your life, but you must not over exert yourself. I have noticed that most people who are born in the Fire signs-your mother's birthday on Dec. 15 is in the Fire sign of Sagittarius- die slowly. If you have ever seen a big log burning slowly in a fire place, slower, slower, slower to the last coal, that is the way your mother's life is going. The natives of the Air signs pass out quicker.

Tuesday--The painters were to come to day to paint the hall, bath room and one bedroom. We have the STUFF moved out, the rooms are ready -they are not here. It is almost as bad as moving. After New Years the dining and living rooms will be painted and papered. I dread it-and at present wish I were in a tent. No matter what one has, house, inside and out, car, clothes and ourselves, they must be kept in repair, but I do wish the days were twice as long.

I almost forgot to thank the stern faced (?) judge with the kind heart ~~to~~ ^{for} commanding me to appear at the S.B season at Santa Barbara next June. I'll be there arrayed in my new suit made from cloth purchased in Toronto, and will trot out my best company manners for the occasion.

My trip was very enjoyable with several nice surprises, met new friends and in-laws and in one of my home towns, Moorhead, Minn. people I had not seen since I was married still think of me as Marie Rogers. One pupil I had not seen for 48 years came with her husband especially to see me. They have 14 children, the youngest being 19. Some are married. They all come home on Sundays. I'd be a wreck on Monday after catering to a mob like that, but they thrive on it. I boarded at their home when I was a country school marm. She was an orphan living with her husband's family at that time. We used to have good times and on Saturdays I translated German stories that they have never forgotten. They still call me "teacher"

In Duluth I was 150 miles from the Canadian border and in Spokane, Wash. 60 miles from s.e. British Columbia. Had it been Ontario would I have crossed the border again-maybe- if the weather were not too cold.

Rayit seems farcical to wish any one in Canada a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year, but I do hope there will be some pleasure in the holiday season for you and that better things are ahead of you in spite of war and the aftermath of war.

With best thoughts for you from

Marie E. L.

Bath Aug 23-

Dear Cousin Ray:-

Many thanks for the seeds from your garden I have an empty Soy-Malt tin in which I will fill with some Bath earth to mix with the California earth when I start the violets &c will let my daughter plant the pinks in her plot - In order to make the adobe soil easier to work we have mixed earth from Santa Barbara &c. & dog manure to mix & I insist on the Jap. saving grass cuttings to sprinkle over the earth instead of having it carried away with the trash.
After you left I went over to

The Methodist- (now United) Church yard to see if there was really a Freeman stone there. Instead I found a Keese stone and wondered if you had gone there before leaving and had come to the conclusion that I had been "seeing things" that did not exist. Get a piece of paper in my handbag I drew an outline of part of the monument. It is not the work of an artist but it is authentic.

I saw that Freeman stone someplace I think it was in the cemetery near Briggs corner about 1/2 mile from Littleboro. Mass near the Perry section. So verify it all look in the Cemetery records

er Tina ut from 3 bottles - There - Cards are in the Library there

When I saw my mistake I thought of the mistake in the Rogers homestead
I could not help laughing - Last year Lillian was sure of a Rogers stone in Norwich - I did not remember of seeing one - so we all drove there and of course did not find it. She was quite troubled about the mistake - but I told her other people made similar mistakes and to forget it - Hereafter I'll make notes on the spot.

I could not find the Rogers names you spoke of in St John's Churchyard I had a man afterwards 2 men working on the Graveyard on South side of Church - The other Graves are in a group on the North side.
I worked too as was the errand gone
The whole neighborhood saw me with broom, dust pan, knife, bag of salt, pair of water to suspend the heavier boxes the men had and the next day - saint. work.

Sand & salt. 2 more bags of salt and 1 of salt peter to make a brine to kill the wood bane roots that were forcing up the slab by breaking the wall. The man had to dig it side too ^{by the side} by all covered off with barriers of earth - 2 bags of cement were necessary by everything now is in good shape - My Cousin had similar work done 14 years ago - then English was the trespasser - Now I hope the wood bane has had such a strong dose that it will give up trying to live - Neither I nor my cousin are to come by as I am not planning to pass this way again. The job was done as thoroughly as possible - I did not intend to spin out such a long story - In the suspect of a good deal of one natured joking far going to sleep in the churchyard & if the man had not awakened me at 5 o'clock. I might have slept far longer - I rest with the right heart some one suggested a quiet conscience - well, in "don't" things I ought not to have done & not things I ought to have done - but the real reason was too much mental strain & a long quiet rest.

I must stop rambling and get down to business. - In looking over notes - there is one of

Robert Perry & Anne Rogers married 12/16/1790 with names of witnesses

Nathan Brisco, Nathan Williams
Catherine Rogers - Amariah Savory

(Ontario Hist. Soc. Vol 1-3) and realized the date is not right for his first wife was Esther Aylsworth Mar. 10/24/93 - & I have ~~the~~ ^{latter} record on the next page - To make sure I went over to Mrs. Gutzits & read in her Ayl-sworth book where Robert & Esther were married on the same date - Robert was born in Dec. 1772 - in 1790 he would have been 18 years - In the book Arthur Ayl-sworth & his descendants in America is the statement of Esther's death leaving 3 or 4 small children who were brought up by relatives - my gr gr aunt Hannah P. Aylsworth was' one - She was married to Bowen Aylsworth in 1797

in leaving Bath on Thursday Aug 24, for Naples & will ask about Robert P. & Anne Rogers also if Robert P. ever had a tannery at Big Creek -

Dr B. gave me the initials of the parties
You asked for - Rev. L. S. O. Barker

Bark - (J. N. Osbourne (if Barker)
E. P. Shepard

Ernest Shepard has lived here all his life & tries at to be able to give you accurate information, but don't pour out your soul to him. Dr B. will tell you what I mean. Yesterday he tried to convince me that Coat Smith was 74 yrs and that he, Ernest, was 5 years younger - when I told him Coat was at least 77 according to the family records in Grandma Rogers bible which I have - he "piped down" - I was a little girl when Coat was a big boy - He also got the date wrong when Coat left for Minnesota in 1881

I was in Belleville at school by studying Music with my Cousin Louise. Davy and Cousin Ned went with me to the station - to see my father, Uncle Will, Coat and some other Bark boys who were bound for far off Minnesota - Coat was peered because I refused to kiss him.

Anyway Ernest finally admitted he was mistaken in the date

It is almost time to sail. This evening at the Paisley House in Napaul for a few days - I want to see a Lisa in Napaul - I do not have to stop at Belvidere will go there to Friday - If Belvidere & Brighton could change places for one day I could see you for 10 minutes at the station - Now I'm not absolutely if the time is 5 or 10 minutes - the time times are not very clear on that point -

Back to our search of family history from

^{Napawee} Monday Ev'g

Dear Ray! - I followed the hunch that has been in my mind ever since last winter after reading ^{in Napawee} ~~Beaver~~ about Charlie Cairns of Napawee spending the week end with his parents the Robert Cairns of Odessa Charlie with his wife & little son live over a machine shop a block from the Paisley House - He works in a furniture factory - His wife is very pleasant and Charlie seemed to be glad to meet a Rogers descendant. He said Mark Rogers told his father much about the Rogers family (What a pity Mark did not leave a written account - Mrs Rogers knows nothing) Mrs Swine Burley of Odessa was Eva Cairns daughter of Melissa

Rogers Cairns daughter of ^{great} Uncle Joe Rogers of Sauerworth - She has a record of the Rogers family and is quite interested in family history - her husband is a first cousin of Dr Burleigh of Bath altho their names are spelled differently - Robert Cairns age is 63 ^{my} was probably the small boy I saw when my mother ^{my} took Lizzie Roge home to Odessa or Sauerworth - She worked for us, but she had T.B.
which was the cause of her death and of Melissa's - The latter died at the age of 39.

Jim Hanley of Morven - Route 1 - (I can't find my notes - but I think the #1 is correct) is connected with the Rogers family - His son Nealey Hanley does business at 272 - Princess St - Kingston - I suggested

That Charlie³ ask his father to write out what Mark told him before he forgot it - The information may or may not be a help to you

There is a Rogers family in Odessa but they are from Derby and so far as I know are not of our branch. I do not know if there are any Rogers at Llanwrthwl, Lillian, and Mrs Rose almost discouraged me from sounding the Cairns but the bunch stood by me and I do hope it answers our questions - If not we will try again Frank Perry told me that Robert Perry's first wife left 6 children He does not know the name of his second wife and she left no children (She may have been Anne Rogers) His 3rd wife was — Fina by whom he had 13 children

In the book about Bay of Quinte people no mention is made of Rogers-Davy - Fairfield - 3 most prominent families of Bath.

The ceiling light is too far from the table to give a good light so I've propped up the bed on which a lamp is fastened -

I gave the negative of the supposed Rogers homestead to Clara Johnston telling her to change the name to Karoly - We had our fun out of it - also our disappointment - I took pictures of the old Robert Perry tannery and of the Stone homestead nearby - and to make sure, we drove to 3 Perry houses & 2 other houses to find out if we had the right home.

Time for it - I've had the nicest time here ^{as yet} every night until after 12 - Clara Johnston went with me to call on Herbert Fife to ask if he knew about Joseph Jacobs V.E.L. as a Jew's married a Fife girl - His wife & I were attracted to each other at first sight & on Sunday I went with them to Ameliaburg where we enjoyed real old time Canadian hospitality at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Fred Fife - In the afternoon Mrs. Fife drove us all to Cap-Recon to interview an Edgar Jacobs - who I hope has set me on the right track to find 2 missing Jacobs generations in New Jersey records - more work ahead - To-day I rec'd a letter from Mrs. Fife enclosing copy of a record they found proving their great grandfather married my gr-gr aunt - This confirms the story known my Chicago cousin who has shared an apt with another cousin for years - It does seem that "all the world's a kin"

If your mother's ⁵condition permits you could go to Odessa by bus & return the same day.
It will be a relief to have the Rogers puzzle solved & the change even for a day will benefit you.

I did not have time to go to Riverside Cemetery to take a snap shot of the Mark Rogers monument or the John Herring Cot - A cousin offered to take me yesterday, but I had promised Louisa Day 83 yrs old to spend that afternoon with her - She would have felt neglected if I did not - Sometime when you are in Naples you may hear

Writby Aug 29th David Allen came over from Ashawa to night ^{about 6 o'clock} and we talked for about 2 hours before going over to his home in Ashawa.
He has quite a reference library.
He found more references to the marriage of Anne Rogers and Robert Perry Jr in 1790 - He suggested it may be Perry instead of Perry as there were families of that name as he may have been a son of William Perry U. S. L.
What relation he ^{was} to Robert U. S. L.
I don't know. I have found 3 different sources of the Perry name. I write you before why the date is not correct.

I forgot to mention that Melissa Cairns first husband was — Hagerman 2nd husband Lewis Burke.
David Kellogg has heard of you thru Dr. Burleigh who he has never met personally. When he does meet him they will talk all night. Probably overeasion is that Dr. B. is starved for sympathy & co-operation in his efforts to awaken interest in Bath in a cultural line. There are a few like Mr. Callup. The postmaster who you met at the meeting (?) of the Hist. Soc.
Mr. Parker - Mr. & Mrs. Gutzert of Toronto - very charming people who have bought the old Fairfield house (she is a Fairfield) that large white house you saw from Mrs. Robinson's veranda.

They return to Toronto in Sept.
Mr Cuppage, Manager of the bank located in a corner of the Navy House - There are other fine people in Bath who are interesting talkers - but who will not give Dr B. any help - some are older than I and others younger & they make all sorts of excuses - so I told Dr B. his wife & the Callupps to have a little group of their own & let the others stay in their same old rut. Mrs Fife in Napaul told me - Herington did not have enough co-operation so that Hist. Soc has vanished.
Mrs Fife is a teacher in the High School & is trying to awaken interest thru the pupils.

In a former letter you wondered why there are so many obstacles in your path. If I knew your birth date I might be able to give you at least a partial explanation. You are not the only one Ray. I've had some too and severe shocks like thunder bolts out of a clear sky - during an illness the nurse looked at me pityingly and shook her head. On asking her why she replied - "Such a frail body, such an active mind." It always was active, but I do give it frequent rests. The obstacles looming before me seemed as immovable as the Rock of Gibraltar and the tower in the tower thousands of miles away - but I told my troubles to no one.

read and studied all the books I could get on Mental Science like History & Power of Mind books by Lazenby, Allen, Warder Trine - especially Trine's "In tune with the Infinite" attended good lectures & finally the spectacles disappeared - Astrology taught me the reasons - Some people think I never had any trouble - that is because I "forget the miseries of the past and remember only its charm" It is like a dream now - and as time passes the dream is fading Laugh & the world laughs with you - Weep & you weep alone My sister - 9 years younger - fossils about the past - and she has high blood pressure ¹² & heart mine is normal. I will always be so. You are on the right track Keep going in spite of obstacles and you will overcome them They are tests of our character severe tests too. You know the proverb "Ad astra per aspera"

"To the stars through difficulties"
The last week in Bath and the days in Naples were rather stressful - mentally - Will try to relax ^{and see my cousins} to-day. I may go to Quebec for the weekend. Will pack some of my baggage in Toronto before going to Quebec.
My God wishes to your mother & Yourself - Marie E-L-Y

I wrote you before leaving Bath.

It was my intention to only write enough to set you on the track to a possible solution of Rogers
Not to write a book

Dear Cousin Ray:-

I arrived last night before 5 p.m. - on the old rattletrap bus that runs between Kingston & Napame. I had to receive your letter to-day - when there was no word from you Tuesday or Wednesday at the British American hotel in Kingston. I knew it was all according to your mother's conditions.
You made very good time to cover the distance in 2 hrs & 35 minutes.
That is one nice thing about an auto - to get you there in less time than a train. You have been a wonderfully devoted son and you surely will be rewarded in some way or in many ways while you are living - leisure & opportunity to do the things you enjoy most.

Mr. & Mrs. Lillian arrived on Monday I read your letter to them - They also regret not seeing you -

I will probably be here for two weeks anyway - perhaps longer - I'm not sure - I may go to Pictou if I can't find what I want elsewhere - Then the chances are the Pictou records are kept in Toronto.

I did not find much at the Archives at Ottawa, but found more at the University Library at Queen's, Kingston, in a Prince Edward County boat, & for nothing about Wm. Strong Noyes - I saw Dr. Durlough at the post office to-night - I told him I had a scolding ready for him for not writing - he said he deserved it. No doubt he waits for the "spirit to move him" -

He has a fund of information and you would enjoy talking to him - I am sure there would be an equal pleasure on his side to meet you -

I realize at this time you have neither the time nor inclination to think as generously but I am enclosing what I've found so far, which you can but aside for some future time -

Yes, your mother has wonderful vitality for so frail a woman - Perhaps she has "sailed away into the sunset" by the time this reaches you - And you are trying to adjust yourself to life without her - which is not easy, but "Time is a great healer" and those who are left to carry on their work here do it best by keeping busy at some thing of which you have a passion -

Fred Lytle will be here all next week. And possibly over the 13th as he has the first 2 weeks in August. It may be possible for you to come to Bath; you know best our thoughts are with you

Sep. 13-39
Dear Ray:- When I stepped upon the train yesterday the blast of hot air seemed to come from a fiery furnace after the cool days in Detroit where I wore my heavy coat. Chicago always does turn on the heat in September - so does California also in October & November. However I sat in the time last evening and to-day at the Newberry Library across the street, but found nothing in any of the Williams or Armstrong material.

There connecting those families with William Rogers & no vital records of Rochester, Saratoga nor Potsdam N.Y. I did find information of the allied families of other lines on which I am working. If the records have not been burned they ought to be somewhere - Plenty of information about Rogers for others - Dr Burleigh gave me the names of 2 books for Ashburn - They are in the library but not of our library.
As far as libraries are concerned my time spent in them in Toronto was wasted, the time could have been used to better advantage in

Dearest Mother dear:

Boy, has your daughter been on a Merry-Go Round this summer? Yes sir-- and she got what she went after, and a little bit more. I have ALL the responsibility I want for the next hundred years. Anyway honey, it ~~as~~ is a good job --- a City job-- and above all -- you can feel a little proud of me, I think. I want you to feel that I have accomplished something, and in the work that I like. That is very important don't you think --- to work at things for which you are fitted. It's not an easy job, and I think my official title is: Director of Women's Recreational Activities, and Director of the Community Center. The Center has me worried, as I have no idea what sort of a program I will put on. It is all so new to me, and I haven't had any experience at it--- but I will just rub the rabbit foot that you sent Irmadean, and maybe I will get an inspiration of some sort in the next month or so.

Am closing the Softball season Thursday night- - Our Banquet will be Sept 14 th--- Irmadeans wedding Sept 23 rd, and my vacation around October the first. Volley Ball must get started, and also activity at the Center, so you see, honey, I wont have time to sit in one place very long.

Irmadean and I are getting married on Sept 23rd. She is coming from Santa Barbara.

SAN FRANCISCO, CALIF.

Dear Cousin Ray:- Your letter reached this town or rather this house a few minutes after my arrival and I am so glad your efforts of the past winter have been rewarded by passing the test &c. The more one studies - it seems to us we know so little but no one can hope to know everything in one life time. I do not worry about my lack of knowledge like I formerly did, but am content to learn some thing every day - knowing the demands on your time. The past winter I did not expect a letter from you - I put in a BUSY winter too. ^{any} many times I wished Father Time would set his clock back to Jan 1-1939 so I could finish what was not even begun - I'm also glad you had the distinction of issuing commands for a Royal Salute when the King & Queen were at Kingston - I do not like that kind of noise, but as Lillian wrote - waving flags - shouting ^{and} firing salutes was the people's way of showing their respect.

CLOSE-UP OF THE SAN FRANCISCO-OAKLAND BAY BRIDGE.

appreciation and I truly hope the visit of England's King & Queen & the Crown-princes & princesses of Holland & Norway will result in a better understanding among the Anglo-Saxon race - We need to stand firmly together when the rest of the world is in such a turmoil - Pres. & Mrs Roosevelt enjoyed having all the royal visitors as guests & they in turn enjoyed a few quiet days - English Royalty has improved since the days of George III -

What is going to become of the refugee Jews - ?
There are plenty of wide open spaces in the world
Surely there must be a haven somewhere - America has too many now. They are ambitious & if granted a colony ~~some~~ permission to settle some where they could have their own colony -

July 14 - Some boys near here have been setting off fire-crackers even the giant size all day - The man of the house worries about the money that is burned up I am more concerned with the noise that hurts my ears.
That is why I'm not enthusiastic about gun salutes.
In the New York Historical Society is a large link of British coming up the Hudson River during the Revolution - & in front of the Redwood Library in America - 1747 - are 3 links from the same chain

The links are 2 feet or more in length - The library has a beautiful interior - the ceilings and doorways reminded me of a fine old Colonial house I saw in Satannah. Perhaps you read in a Canadian paper that an English genealogist while preparing the genealogies of King George ^{III} & Queen Elizabeth for the British Pavilion at the N. Y. Fair accidentally found that Elizabeth is related to the Washington & Robert Lee families many generations ago & that Pres. Roosevelt & Neville Chamberlain are 8th Cousins 3 times removed.

I have spent many hours in different libraries trying to find some light on Mr Rogers

In the Newberry Library Chicago - I copied from The Rogers Family by Underwood that goes more into detail, back to 1335 - A.D. Both lead to John Rogers Leam Vells book goes to 970 A.D. Martyr & Thos. Rogers

In the D. A. R. Library in May flower passenger

Washington D.C. The book David Rogers carries

The same line back to 484 B.C. so IF we can trace our descent from that line - we will be sitting pretty - Underwood has written The Rogers Family in England but it is not in any library where I have been

In Buffalo I went to The Grosvenor Library - but found nothing new - to us - I sincerely ^{hope} a way will be opened for you to take your car and go on a research trip for you will never be satisfied until you find out about William - if not - then perhaps his name was in the records that were destroyed when the British burned Peter Rogers' house - By going in an auto you can make better time ^{and} go more places - I have 5 pieces of luggage which are a nuisance, but I must be prepared for weather changes - I did not go to Washington D.C.
this year because I wanted to go to Ottawa to look up about the Jacks ^{and} Dwy families then to the College in Kingston ^{and} Ontario Dist. Soc. Mrs. Rouse said I could get information about Rogers at Lumen's College - I'll have to ask if it is in the library or genealogy dept. Mrs. Rose - where I stay while in Bath - knows the woman who manages The British American hotel in Kingston - says it is not a fashionable place but clean - I don't know just where it is but imagine it is near the market - I may reach Kingston Aug. 1 or 2 - ^{and} possibly we may meet there I dread the ride to Bath in that old rattle trap bus - that was on the line last year - I know some Bath people who come often to Kingston - If I let them know when I'm ready to come to Bath - they will call for me - Hope you can manage some way for I do not think I can stop at Brighton - you will need a rest after the Camp. Lillian ^{and} Fred will beat Bath - Sincerely - M. E. Loring -

Dear Cousin Ray:-

Many, many thanks for the big roll of papers received a few days before I left on another jaunt. I brought the magazine sections with me which I read en route - the other part has been filed away to be read again on my return. The King and Queen were well entertained but I am wondering if they would have enjoyed it more had there been less blaring of trumpets and noisy gun salutes - and if the men had worn informal summer attire a la America & Canada instead of the formal cut-a-way & striped trousers - especially in Washington where that weather prevailed.

All the royalties who have visited North America this year have been sensible young married couples My daughter in Santa Barbara enjoyed an informal chat with The Crown Princess of Denmark & found her very gracious - & natural Anyway they had a good time and have something to talk about besides England.

The 3 photos enclosed are from my mother's album & the Kodak picture of me is for your mother in return for those of her taken in her back yard.

I visited some wonderfully interesting Historical Society Museums at Chicago, Cleveland, Buffalo, New York, New Haven and Providence, so far, and there is no reason why Canada cannot have them too - ^{to the people} they can if they show the right spirit.

My plan is to be in Bath some time the first week in August possibly Aug 4 or 5 - Lillian & Fred probably will be there at that time - You know what I see now I'll be ^{in Bath} there at least 2 weeks & it may be possible for you to be there at the same time unless you are scheduled for another military ex-

Dear busy cousin Ray:-

I do appreciate your long letter-no letter is ever too long for me- Yes, one busy person understands why another busy person cannot find the time to write as often as he wants to. and now that you have a busy winter of study and going to Kingston every week besides all the other "must be done's" staring you in the face and demanding attention I will not look for an answer until after your exams- and you have my very best wishes for good luck and no pull back. In my younger days I had exams too followed by mental and physical exhaustion. I took them too seriously then.

By this time you know that Fred snapped the picture of the Rogers homestead with my camera. I made the notation "snapped by Fred" because I did want to take all the credit for the picture. I have two extra pictures that I will send you with the negative. The man who develops my negatives makes them a larger size without extra charge. I did intend to take a snap of uncle Charlie's house in Bath, but forgot about it until too late and I had plenty of time too.

No, I don't know where Armstrong lived in P.E.Co. I was not interested in genealogy at the time, so did not ask questions. One of my cousins on my ~~mother's~~ side worries because when she "was young and foolish" that she did not have our grandfather Davy tell the family history and have her write it. Now we are writing all over the country when we hear of a clue.

When we were in Pasadena Jan. 15, a lady told me the State House at Albany was burned during the Civil War with all the records. She has the records of her mother's maternal side, but the records on the paternal side were destroyed in the fire. She does not know how far back the records extended. I wonder if our Rogers records were among those destroyed. They would have to be before the Revolution.

If Robt. Perry's second wife was Anne Rogers the marriage date 12/23/1790 is not right because Robert was born 12/12/1772 which would make him 18 years of age which is rather ^{young} for a widower with 6 children.

Our ancestor was Robert Perry Sr. but there was another Perry U.E.L. A William Perry and that Robert may have been his son, but in the record you copied it is Robert Perry 2nd which would mean son of Robert Perry Sr. The date may be wrong.

I saw Mrs Rouse last summer and she could not give me any information. She told me, however that one of her boys said there was or is much information about the Rogers family at Queen's U in Kingston.

The David Vallean whose notes I copied items of the Rogers family is related to my cousin in San Diego on the Fairfield side. He is writing a record of old Canadian families and expects to take 10 years in the work and is grateful for information of the Rogers, Perry, Davy, Fairfield and allied families. As I have some information that may help him I will write to him after some work is disposed of. He may be able to help you and you can help him-I know.

As usual the new year began with what looks like a mountain of things to be done. Since returning in October my time has been so full that I have not looked at my autobiography since April. However it is on my mind and if nothing interferes will continue it after Feb. 1st. Dr Burleigh asked me to write a story of Bath as I remember it before we left there in 1882. It will be a story of childhood memories and I'll try to make it interesting, but my autobiography will not be of interest to any one outside of the family. The story of Bath will be for the Historical Society. I hope to write to Lillian this week. On account of some business transactions, personal correspondence had to be pushed aside, and for about 10 days telegrams, air-mail specials and documents by registered mail were travelling back and forth to interested parties. For a few days afterwards my mind was a FLOP. Fortunately there were other things awaiting attention that did not require much mental effort so I'm gradually getting back to normal. Those pictures of your mother taken when she was 90 are excellent and I am so glad to have them and take pride showing them to my friends.

Since the December rain there has been much chill in the air in spite of the sunshine. The birds were hopping around this a.m. picking up leaves, twigs &c for their nests which leads us to hope the worst of the winter is over. We Californians are like pampered children- we want fine weather all the time. The cool days are best for us- too much warm weather would make us too languid to live.

Hoping the weather will be fair on the days you go to Kingston and that you will pass the exams and that you both will have good health all winter I will close with New Year wishes

You ask about the wife of Robert Perry Jr. He was married 3 times and had 19 children by wives nos. 1 and 2, so I was told by Perry cousins in Napanee and also read about it and the names of the children in a biography in the Belleville Library. I asked for books relating to the early history of Belleville and the biography was among them. I do not remember if the names of his wives are mentioned, but I do know that his first wife was Esther Aylsworth and when she died the 6 or 9 children were parceled among the relatives. He was a Methodist minister. Esther Aylsworth was a sister of Bowen Aylsworth who married Robert Perry's sister Hannah-my gr-great aunt. David Aylsworth her gr-gr-grandson and his family are occupying the homestead where Hannah and Bowen Aylsworth reared their family of 15 children and one or two of Robert's. Thirteen of her children lived to be grandparents. David's wife gave me a picture of the homestead. The Rogers homestead is in that vicinity somewhere. There are Aylsworths in Trenton who belong to the same family.

Dr Ralph B Aylsworth,) Laura P Aylsworth,) Trenton.

I copied the above names from a little book compiling the names of those and their relationship to the Aylsworth family who were present at the Aylsworth re union at Bath in 1929, by Sir Allan B Aylsworth of Toronto who is a descendant of Bowen and Hannah. No representatives of Catherine and William Rogers were present.

Will Rogers.

THE STORY OF WILL ROGERS

Born in Oologah, Indian Territory, on Nov. 4, 1879. This date fell on Tuesday and Election Day.

Educated at the Willie Hassell school at Neosho, Mo., and at the Kemper Military Academy at Boonville, Mo.

Married Betty Blake at Rogers, Arkansas, on Nov. 25, 1908.

Had three children, Will, Jr., a student at Stanford University, Mary and Jimmy. Mary, after appearing in one picture, "My Weakness," joined a stock company at Lakewood, Maine, and from there went to the New York stage.

Learned to rope and ride while he was a ranch hand in Oklahoma.

Made his first public appearance when he was 14 years old in a riding contest which he won. Became a cowpuncher when he was 17.

Soon owned a small herd of his own which he sold to a neighbor and with another youth, bought third-class tickets to the Argentine to seek his fortune. Became a gaucho and punched cows across the pampas for $4 a month—American money.

Could have worked his way back home, but decided to stick it out and see more of the world.

Got a job on a cattleboat transporting mules from Buenos Aires to South Africa for British troops in the Boer War. Landing in Capetown, decided to remain and pursue his fortune.

Hoped to see some of the war, but the fighting ceased the day after he arrived.

JOINED WILD WEST SHOW

Cast about for some profitable occupation and joined a traveling "wild west" show.

After showing in the principal cities of South Africa, the show and Rogers moved to England.

Finally grew homesick and took passage for New York, thence back to Oklahoma.

Following a rest, joined another "wild west" show in Oklahoma and started on a tour of the Southwest.

By this time his rope spinning act had attained considerable perfection and an alert booking agent signed him for the 1905 annual horse show at Madison Square Garden.

The horse show over, next appeared at Hammerstein's Roof. Was an immediate hit and soon in demand.

Made several tours of the "big time" vaudeville circuits.

Finally was induced to join "Ziegfeld's Follies" and, later, was featured in "Midnight Frolics."

It was while a star performer with Ziegfeld that he first introduced a line of patter with his rope and pony act.

Then a bigger hit than ever.

Changed his line every night and many of the seat holders were "repeaters."

In 1919 abandoned the stage and made a series of silent pictures. Some of these were "Two Wagons, Both Covered," a burlesque on "The Covered Wagon," "Doubling for Romeo," "Boys Will Be Boys," "Family Fits," "Jubilo, Jr.," "Our Congressmen," "Going to Congress," "Gee Whiz, Genevieve" and "A Texas Steer."

Also made a series of shorts, "Strolling Thru Europe With Will Rogers," for Pathe. Success indifferent; no sound.

In 1922, returned to the "Follies" and remained on Broadway until 1929, when the advent of talking pictures brought him back to the screen in "They Had to See Paris," for Fox.

This time his familiar drawl was not missing and the picture was a hit.

Soon after this picture was finished, Fred Stone broke one of his legs in an airplane and Rogers took his friend's place in "Three Cheers" on Broadway.

Again a hit.

Charles Dillingham, producer of "Three Cheers," always sent Rogers his salary in the form of a signed check, permitting Rogers to fill in the amount.

What it was, always been a secret.

TRIED SILENT FILMS FIRST

When the show went on the road, Rogers returned to the Fox Studio.

Second production was "So This Is London" followed by "Lightnin'," "A Connecticut Yankee," "Young As You Feel," "Business and Pleasure," "Ambassador Bill," "Down to Earth," "Too Busy to Work" and "State Fair."

More recent pictures were "Dr. Bull," "Mr. Skitch," "David Harum," "Merry Andrew," "Judge Priest," "The County Chairman," "Life Begins at 40," "Steamboat 'Round the Bend" and "In Old Kentucky."

Member of the Masons, Shriners and Elks. Member of the Lambs and Friars in New York.

AMBASSADOR OF GOOD WILL

Author of "Rogersisms" (1919), "The Cowboy Philosopher on the Peace Conference," "The Cowboy Philosopher on Prohibition" (1919), "Rogersisms—What We Laugh At" (1920), "The Illiterate Digest" (1924), "Letters of a Self-made Diplomat to His President" and "There's Not a Bathing Suit in Russia" (1927).

Hobby was flying and he had written some of his best quips while up in the air.

Never took a train, a boat, or an automobile if he could secure an airplane for a journey of any distance.

Piloted by Captain Frank Hawks, made an aerial tour of the territory affected by the Mississippi flood in 1931 in the interest of the sufferers.

The same year, gave a week of his time to the Community Chest of Los Angeles, appearing twice daily at Loew's State to crowded houses.

More recently made flying tour of South America to get material for his syndicated daily comment. Still more recently, with Mrs. Rogers and his two sons, a two months' tour of Europe.

AN INTERNATIONAL FIGURE

Warm friend of the Lindberghs.

On intimate terms with kings and queens in Europe and captains of industry in the United States.

Chewed gum constantly; bought it by the gross, but never had a piece handy. Always borrowed gum from somebody.

Chewed gum to keep down his desire to smoke. Hadn't smoked for years.

Only pets he had were horses, mostly polo ponies.

Had a polo field at his ranch between Hollywood and Santa Monica, California, and played in competition.

Taught his sons, Will, Jr., and Jimmy the game. Both are now experts.

Classed polo as his pastime.

Read the newspapers and current literature.

When asked if he read any fiction, Rogers once replied: "Yes, the newspapers."

Declared he was not superstitious, but constantly knocked wood.

Refused to "sit" for a picture.

Never "dressed up."

Dreaded to attend a function; refused to wear evening clothes; wore a blue serge suit at banquets, etc.

Difficult to engage him in conversation, but once he got started, no one could stop him.

Would talk on any subject except his family and his accomplishments.

Up every morning at 5, took care of his polo ponies and his goats on his Santa Monica Canyon ranch. Read all the morning papers before breakfast and scattered them all over the house.

Rented a business office in Los Angeles and employed a woman secretary to handle his mail, a big part of which was delivered to the studio.

Read whatever his secretary put on his desk and there was a daily pile.

Seldom failed to reach the studio for lunch.

Enjoyed the atmosphere of the cafe; called it his club.

DISLIKED INTERVIEWS

Seldom gave an interview and when he did took pains not to tell anything he used in his daily or weekly comment.

Frequently went from table to table in the studio restaurant, picking up lunch checks belonging to girls who work in the studio offices. Let the directors, writers and actors pay their own.

Had a pretentious bungalow dressing room on the Fox lot, but seldom unlocked the door; changed his costume in his auto and wrote most of his "copy" in the car on a portable typewriter.

Took it to the telegraph office himself after permitting his friends to read it and make comments and suggestions.

Had been abroad six or seven times; thought the United States the only country in the world.

Corresponded for close to 200 newspapers.

Never missed a day and had never been late.

Lived by the actor's tradition, "The Show Must Go On."

Had never played golf or tennis.

Early ambition was "to grow up and be a man."

Often wondered if he realized it.

Witty, sarcastic and ironical.

Hated insincerity and disliked compliments.

Disliked the man who met him and started reminiscing.

Shied at conversing on the subject of his early life as a cowboy.

Devoted to his wife and those kids.

Recently sent his oldest boy on a trip to Mexico. Instructed him to see all the sights and learn to speak Spanish before he came back.

Spoke with a drawl and saw the humorous side of everything.

Aug. 16.—
Say, don't you feel bad—I always knew I'd have to make this Trip sometime, and there's no pilot I'd rather take it with than Old Wiley. Who do you think I run into up here—Knute Rockne—remember that old rascal—and Flo—golly! Was glad to see him again—and my mighty good old friend, Nick Longworth—and, oh, yes, Cal. I mustn't forget Cal—there's so many of my old cronies that I can't name 'em all here. Well, we certainly had a fine visit. I'm going to have my hands full renewing old acquaintances.

I'm going to kinder miss congress—I always got a big kick out of kiddin' 'em—but they're a pretty fine bunch of fellers when you get to know 'em.

I gotta get back to my blathering—and when you make this Trip, I'll be seeing you.

Yours,

Dear Ray Freeman:-

When I went to the Synod House in Kingston to ask for copies of records of interest to you, I forgot to take the list of names you gave me and only remembered the Rogers name. Yesterday when they were not needed they "bobbed up serenely(?)". The only record of William Rogers was of his burial-none of Armstrong and as Armstrong received his land grant in 1861 in Prince Edward Co. that bears out my father's statement that his father Samuel Rogers was born in that county. Armstrong was probably married there and all his children born there and the records are more likely on file either in some church, town or in the City Hall Toronto where many of the Ontario records are now kept.

While I was in Massachusetts I found 3 dates that I had spent much time in search, in cemetery records and perhaps we might find some missing R Rogers information that way. If not I am inclined to think that the records may have been those destroyed when the house of Peter Rogers was destroyed by the British led by Benedict Arnold. In the D.A.R. Library in Washington is a book on David Rogers who is descended from John Rogers the Martyr and Thomas of the Mayflower. That line has been traced back to 484 B.C.. In none of the books I consulted did the Williams fit our line. The Jenks pedigree is also traced back step by step to 151-4 B.C. and after the first of the year I will assemble my notes and write more fully about it, but one thing is certain-we are not descended from Joseph Jenks daughter Mary who was married twice-1st to John Herndon-2nd to Nathaniel Harrington-she was a widow when she died in 1770. We are more likely to be descended from his SISTER Mary who married her uncle Daniel Jenks a widower with 7 children, the youngest son of Jos. Jenks I by his second wife. Mary was the dau. of Jos. Jenks II-son of Jos. Jenks by his first wife who died in England, so Mary was the daughter-in-law of her grandfather-wife and niece of her father's step-brother Daniel who was 11 years her senior and cousin and step-mother to his children. There are records of the children of Daniel by his first wife, but so far, I have found no record of the 3 children by his second wife- I found the names in a biographical sketch. We may and may not succeed in finding the two missing generations. Harlan Jenks could give me no help.

Perhaps Dr Burleigh has given you more Rogers data. In the U.E.L. List there is the name Jos. Jinks (Jenks) wife and 9 children. Perhaps Dr B may find something about them at the Ontario Hist. Soc. in Kingston. I have written Lillian to see if there is anything in the Archives or the Hist. Soc. in Toronto. One of the Jenks girls married a Files and my friend in Chicago shares an apt. with a lady who has a cousin Dr Fyles in Ameliasburg and I am going to write my friend to ask her for details. We may be able to find enough to enable us to work backwards like I did on the Perry line.

I am inclined to be sorry I did not stay two days in Kingston, heat or no heat, but by following my hunches, as to when to move on, I avoided bad storms, thereby saving my family worry. Of course I am anxious to go again to finish my quest, but the next time will go to New England first and return thru Canada. Many places I wanted to see were closed in August. The year ahead will be a busy one for me and Dr Burleigh wants me to write what I remember of Bath up to the time we left in 1882. It is well that we can remember our childhood days.

May the holiday season be a happy one for you and the new year better than the one hearing the end.

Dear Cousin Ray:-

There I've written
it. My intention was to write Mr Greenman but the Bakers spoke of you as Ray and when I was introduced to Fred, he said "Now remember I'm not Mr Baker I'm Fred". The habit of saying Mr is so strong that everytime I addressed him as Mr he'd remind me "Fred, if you please" I was so glad they were in Bath while I was there - William & I did not remember how we looked in our childhood days & I had we not met this summer we might have gone the rest of our lives without ^{meeting} knowing each other.

I am sitting in a lawn swing on the 13th floor of the Y - where there is a roof garden overlooking the East River and surrounded by towering sky scrapers and other buildings of various heights - The beautiful spire of the Chrysler Bldg is 4 blocks distant at 42nd St.

Well. I'm sorry to say I did not find out much about the Rogers family - Many persons were questioned, but they knew nothing. The only record of Wm Rogers at the Synod House was that of his death June 18-1799 - and none of Armstrong - However Dr Burleigh has already written you that he was married in the U. S. and came to Canada with a wife & 6 children - Now, if you know from what County in N.Y. he came and have not learned anything further about his ancestry I might be able to find it here - I left Bath Aug 9. for Kingston & Montreal intending to go to Quebec City, but after consulting the cost of the extra trip decided I'd rather spend the money elsewhere - And now I'm sorry I did not stay in Kingston two days and go to a library on the University grounds where Mrs

Mr Rouse told me was much information on the Rogers family - Kingston had one of its very hot days and I almost melted so I called a taxi and took the train for Mount-real - However if Mr Burleigh has supplied you with the necessary information we won't worry about my request.
He took a snap shot of the old Rogers homestead minus the original porch (north of Bath) After the film is developed I'll send you one if it is good.

In Massachusetts I took snaps of my gr gr gr grand ^{monuments} parents and spent the afternoon in the home built either by my gr gr gr gr gr gr or gr gr gr gr gr gr grand father between 250 and 260 years ago - also took snaps of the cemeteries where they were buried - Those towns are nearer Providence R.I than to Boston - Providence is built on seven hills - no matter how warm the day - There is a

Worce - I'd like to come again but am not making any future plans - yet -

Remember me to your Mother and tell her I'll always remember what a capable housekeeper she was at the age of 92 -

If there is anything you want me to look up - if it is here - let me know by return mail - as I may not be here after next Tuesday.

Sincerely

Dear Cousin Ray:- Just a short letter to enclose clippings that may be of some interest to you. The one about Jay Freeman was wrapped around a piece of oil cloth on the top shelf in the kitchen for several years, and I was about to discard it, when the name Jay Freeman caught my eye, and I sat on top of the ladder stool to read it, and decided you might like to have it.

The treasurer of our D.A.C. Chapter is a descendant of James Rogers of Connecticut; she let me look over her Rogers lineage, but I could find nothing that fit our case. She said some of the Conn. Rogers did go to Long Island. I wish you could see her beautifully arranged genealogy of the main line and allied families. It was quite an inspiration, and next winter I'm hoping for more leisure to arrange our genealogy in a similar way. I am planning to leave the last of the month or June, 1, for the eastern states where I hope to find some missing links in the Jenks family, and will return thru Canada. Perhaps it will be possible for you to be in Bath or Napanee at the same time in August. This trip I want to go to Ottawa and to spend a few days in Kingston. I was in San Diego over the week end on account of a cousin-in-law's funeral, and to day I wrote letters for my cousin who is not very well and is very tired. Hoping you were TOPS in your exam and that your mother and yourself are jogging along as usual

You and I seem to belong to the busy people of the earth-every day is too short for us-The genealogy hobby is a very absorbing one, and which demands patience, perseverance and willingness to spend the time, for it is work that cannot be done in a hurry. How proud we are when we have a clear family record and know our background. Your letter was forwarded to me at Santa Barbara. I have been home just 2 weeks with my days filled to the brim with various things. The data that is enclosed is the result of 2 visits to the library and which may or may not be a help to you. The next time I'm down town I'll ask the librarian if there is a book there on the Mayflower descendants, if not I'll wait until I go to Chicago and farther east. Yes your information is very welcome and I do hope we can find the name of William Rogers parents I cannot recall in what book I read the note about "William Rogers disappeared" I do not remember of reading it and cannot find it among my notes.

Your desire to visit places in N.Y. is so strong that I hope the way will be made clear for you to take the trip. You will never be satisfied until you do take it and we are not growing any younger-at least our years are not getting less no matter how young we feel. In fact we are too busy to think of our age. I want to stop a day or so at Belleville this time to take some snapshots. As I have not been there since I was 14 years of age I expect to see many changes.

California has experienced much unusual weather this year-to day has been cloudy and cool so I took the opportunity to work out in the back yard, later a fine rain began falling and is still falling at 8.30 p.m. Easter Sunday the day was so warm that we had our dinner on the front porch which is screened from the street by a large tree. We have a long dry season here that a light rain does no harm if the sun shines afterwards.

My thanks to you for the long letter which took a long time to write and if any one deserves the reward of finding or tracing an ancestor you are THE ONE, for the work is not easy, but it has its compensation.

SO you are a bachelor! My bachelor uncle died last year at the age of 92½. He was a most thoughtful man and knew the needs of women and children better than most married men.

My very best wishes for you

from

Marie E. Lowry.

My dear Mr Freeman:-

In your last letter you wrote of a friend in New York state who thought she could trace our Rogers line from some place in that state and I am wondering if she succeeded in doing so. There are so many different lines bearing the Rogers name with various origins that in order to trace our particular line we must have a definite starting point. I had good luck with our Perry line and have a record of all the births in our direct line from 1615 down to my last grandchild born in 1931. I gathered sufficient other data to enable me to become a member of the patriotic organization of Daughters of American Colonists as a direct descendant of Anthony Perry who came from England in 1640.

I am hoping to make another trip to Canada this summer and also to Massachusetts and Rhode Island to look up some missing links in the Jenks pedigree.

I am spending the winter in Santa Barbara, altho' I put my home address at the heading of this letter as I will go home every month for a few days. Our winter this season was a normal California winter up to the last week in January when the weather began to be as temperamental as what you have had in the east. The ground hog evidently has returned to his burrow for another snooze of 6 weeks while we humans have to hustle to keep the home fires burning along with all the other duties of the winter season. Of course the grass and other vegetation is thriving here, but the rain and wind are chilly. We ought not to complain, for California can use the moisture that is stored in the earth during the dry season. We do not have icy streets like you have nor do we have to shovel snow or put on storm windows. Californians are like pampered children where the weather is concerned.

Closing with good wishes from Marie E. Lacey.

Thomas Rogers.

Thpmas Rogers and his son Joseph are credited to the Leyden contingent, but it is suggested that the names of Christopher Martin, John Hooke and Thomas Rogers are found early in 1620 as tax-payers of the parish of Bartholomew the Great in London. The father, Thomas died the first winter in America of the "general sickness" but his son survived and his descendants bear the name. In the Leyden records he was called a "camlet merchant" and appears to have come to Leyden a few years before the migration to America for he acquired citizenship papers in 1618. Bradford says Thomas Rogers had other children besides Joseph who came in the Mayflower. They came over later, but their names are not in the Leyden records. He sold his house in 1620 preparatory to coming to America.

Thomas Rogers died 1621. He was the 18th signer of the Mayflower Compact.

William Rogers came from England to Connecticut in 1635 and with two others bought the Eastern Land Purchase from the Indians on which Huntingdon , L.I. was founded.

Compendium of American Genealogy, Vol. 5, page-781.

Rogers--Bradford's Records.

Thomas Rogers and son Joseph were among the Mayflower passengers. His other children came over afterwards. Thomas Rogers died in the first sickness. His son Joseph married and had 6 children- Joseph died in 1678- His other children and had many children.

Another account of the Rogers name.

Altho the surname is generally acknowledged to have originated from the baptismal name of Rogers-possessive form- used to designate Roger's son as Henry Roger's, Harrison reminds us that many an Irish MacRory or MacRury has Anglicized his name to Rogers or Rogerson. Many persons called Rogers and Rogerus are recorded as tenants in the Domesday Book (1086) The Norman patronymical form is Fitz-Roger and the Welsh ap Roger became in some cases Prodger. The name was very common in the 13th century all over Great Britain, appearing in various forms including the nick names of Hodge and Podge.

The present year has been very strenuous especially for people living east of the Rockies-busy keeping from freezing during the severe winter and busy trying to keep cool during the extremely hot summer with all the other problems of a dry season, are enough to drive all thoughts of letter writing in the background; and now preparations must be made for another winter- and so it goes year in and year out. It is the way of life to do things over and over again. California had a cooler winter and hotter summer too, but not but not to such a degree that the crops suffered, judging by the displays of fruits and vegetables in the open front markets. California is noted for cool nights, but this year during July and August there were more mild nights than during any other summer of our 25 year residence here. Days are still warm but nights are cooler.

Your interesting letter, so full of information deserved a prompt reply, but-there is always a BUT- a series of annoying problems were in the way and had to be disposed of before I could do any research work in the family history line. When the problems were finally solved, we had a succession of guests all thru August and into September and this week a very dear friend is coming for a few days, so I am going to write now while I have a few hours of leisure, even tho I have not looked up all the data for which you asked. The only information I have of Armstrong Rogers is that given to my father by his mother Rachel Bradshaw Rogers, and I remember hearing him say that his father Samuel Rogers was born in Prince Edward Co. If you know any descendants of the Bradshaw's or Bowens you might get some information from them or in the records of P.E.Co. I boarded with Mrs E.J. Rose in Bath last summer and she showed me a U.E.L. Seal given to one of her husband's ancestors- it may have been Matthias Rose. If he and William Rogers worked side by side perhaps some member of the Rose family may have some record in which he is mentioned.

I have made several trips to the Genealogy Room in the Los Angeles Library but have not found anything definite yet, and have not looked to see if the Albany books you mentioned are there, but will do so at the first opportunity.

As my visit last year was the first in more than 50 years I did not obtain all the pictures and information I needed, and on account of getting such a late start my stay was too short. If it will be possible for me to go next year, I hope to start earlier and will know better what, how and where to do and go for information of the Perry, Davy, Rogers and their connecting families. I have received such nice friendly letters from the Canadians which surprised me for I did not expect them to give me more than a passing thought. Is Brighton Near Belleville or Napanee?

A thought just came to me that perhaps Mrs Mark Rowse of Bath could give you some information about Samuel Rogers' parents and grand parents. Mark Rowse's mother was a daughter of Samuel Rogers by his first wife. My grandmother Rachel Bradshaw was a cousin of Samuel and was his housekeeper for 2 years after the death of his first wife. They were married in 1836.

Margaret Jenks was the wife of Armstrong Rogers - Samuel Rogers' parents and Deborah Jenks was the wife of William Bradshaw. Rachel Bradshaw's "

Mrs Rowse may be able to give you information about the Rogers homestead on the George Hawley farm or if she cannot, Mark's sisters-if living-may know something. Mark died several years ago.

I took a snap shot of the Rogers homestead in Bath last summer but it is not very good. I hope for better luck next time. We spent happy years in that old house and my father took such pride in fine trees and shrubs and there was a large garden of fruits and vegetables. The place is not kept as nice as when we lived there. The red brick where Charles Rogers lived looked as nice as it did 50 years ago.

I am enclosing some kodak pictures and a page I wrote while in Santa Barbara. Had just begun a letter to you when I received a telegram calling me home. A year ago to-day I was in New York City I will enclose a pamphlet of Rochfeller Center with some Santa Barbara pamphlets which may interest you.

You are to be congratulated on the effort you are making and the information you have collected about the Rogers lineage. Perhaps the spirits of our fore fathers are hovering about us guiding us in the right direction- let's hope so anyway-

For several years I have been trying to get into the right spirit to write my autobiography so that my children, if they are so inclined, will not have to search for facts in the tedious way we are doing.

Closing with best wishes for you

My dear Mr Freeman:-

At last I have an opportunity to answer your letter received in November. You will see by the enclosed list that I am also a descendant of William Rogers U.E.L. My cousin Mrs Lillian Smith Baker of Quelp sent me a copy of your very interesting and enlightening data on the Rogers genealogy thinking I might like to be a member of the U.E.L. Society, but as I do not expect to go to Canada more than once more if nothing happens to prevent, I do not think I could derive any benefit from a membership unless a branch should be organized in the United States

Mrs Baker's mother and my father were sister and brother and I had not heard from her for more than 50 years.

I noticed an item in your record where William Rogers sold 100 acres of land to Robert Perry Sr. my great-great grandfather. (material)

The Rogers information in your letter sounds very much like that in "Ontarian Families" Vol. 2. Published by Rolph, Smith & Co. Toronto, 1898. Those books, also an ~~1884~~ Report of the 1884 U.E.L. Centenary are in the Genealogy Room of the Los Angeles Public Library. I have looked thru two books on the Rogers family but found no information of William Rogers who joined the Loyalists.

When we lived in Bath, I remember, when I was 12 years of age, that my mother and I visited Uncle Joe Rogers brother of Samuel Rogers, my grandfather and his wife. Mrs Cairns of Odessa was his daughter. That was 56 years ago. Uncle Joe lived at Tamworth. My father told me that our branch of the Rogers family came to America from the north of Ireland-Londonderry- which agrees with the following account in the Ontarian. "The Rogers family claim to be descended from Count de Rogier who came to England with William the Conqueror. A branch of the family settled in North Ireland of which was James Rogers who came from Londonderry in 1718 and settled in New Hampshire where the family became large land owners" &c.

On account of not starting on my Canadian journey until July and having a long list of stop-overs before arriving home, my stay in Canada was only one month. It was my first visit there since we left in Dec. 1882, but I found 9 old schoolmates in Bath and thereabouts and some older ones who remembered me. I had such a good time and have received such nice letters from friends and relatives in 8 Canadian towns and cities that it makes me want to go again. If there is a next time, I hope to see more places and people. My trip circled the U.S. and Ontario and part of Quebec. I appreciate your efforts in looking up the Rogers family just as much as if you had sent the data to me personally. I have done considerable work on the Perry line and have succeeded in tracing our line unbroken to Anthony Perry who was born in England in 1615 and came to America in 1640. I have no information yet to add to yours on the Rogers side. Thanking you for your interest, I am very Sincerely Yours

Thomas Rogers.

Thomas Rogers and his son Joseph are credited to the Leyden contingent, but it is suggested that the names of Christopher Martin, Thos. Rogers and John Hooke are found early in 1620 as tax-payers of the parish of St. Bartholomew the Great in London. The father, Thomas, died the first winter in America of the "general sickness" but his son survived and his descendants bear the name. In the Leyden records he was called a "camlet" merchant and appears to have come to Leyden a few years before the migration to America, as he acquired citizenship in 1618. Bradford says "Thomas Rogers had other children beside Joseph who came in the Mayflower, but their names are not in the Leyden records. He sold his house in 1620 preparatory to coming to America".

Davy

John Davy, a United Empire Loyalist, left the Mohawk valley in New York State and settled on a large tract of land on the Bay of Quinté where Bath now stands, in 1785, such land being given to him by the Crown. He came from England, and was of Welsh descent. He was a widower with two daughters; one was named Eve, who married ---- Lewis, and after his death married ----- Laird. I do not know who the other daughter married.

John Davy was married September 22, 1787 to Sophia Hufnagel by the Church of England missionary, John Langhorn. It was the first marriage recorded on the books of St. John's Church, Bath, and the first birth recorded was that of Peter Davy, their first child.

St. John's Church at Bath was the second English church built in Canada. In those days the churches were all called English, as that was the established church.

John Davy had a large family. The children married as follows:

Peter married Aurelia Chapman, from Rouse's Point, N. Y.

John married Fannie Woods; Benjamin ~~James~~ F. married ~~Elizabeth~~ Cinderella.

Perry; George married Sarah Pringle; William H. married Hannah

M. Perry.; Margaret married Saba Murphy; Sophia married Ira Billings;

Elizabeth married John B. Miller, a southern gentleman.

When John Davy died his land went to his two oldest boys, leaving nothing for the younger boys. His widow married Captain ^{Meyers} Moyers and took her family to Belleville where they lived in the old Moyers home that stood on the hill facing the River Moira, which was then called Moyers' ~~Exe~~ Creek.

When Capt. Moyers and Sophia Davy were married, the ceremony was not performed by an English Church minister, and in time there was a law in Canada making such marriage illegal, therefore the widow Moyers could not inherit her third of the estate. The law was annulled years afterwards. While great grandfather Peter Perry was in Parliament, he was greatly interested in the legalizing of marriages performed outside of the English Church. Sophia Moyers' girls all married, but the boys were left homeless. John Maybee married Barbara Hufnagel and lived on the 2nd Concession of Sydney, about 7 miles from Belleville. The boys had a home with him for a while. Sophia Moyers gave her farm to Sophia Billings, as she was poor. Ira Billings came from a fine family in Ottawa. He was educated for a doctor, but drink was his ruin. Sophia Moyers died on her Sydney farm and was buried in the old graveyard on the Bay of Quinté, near Trenton, about 1840. In the meantime Saba Murphy had established a business in Ovid, N. Y. He taught Benjamin the business of a general store. Then Benjamin returned to Canada and opened a general store in Bath. He looked up the younger boys, George and William, and took them in his store.

Benjamin married Cinderella Perry, Jan. 20, 1834. About 1837 Benjamin left William in charge of the Bath store while he opened one at Napanee. Benjamin left George in charge of the Napanee store while he moved to Whitby and went into partnership with Peter Perry in a general store. After staying in Whitby two years Benjamin moved to Belleville, where he opened a wholesale and retail store, packed pork for Gilmore's lumber camp on the Madawaska, and was also a heavy grain buyer and the first mayor of Belleville. He entered into rest March 6, 1860.

George Davy was the first merchant in Napanee, and owned the first grist mill on the Napanee River.

The Hufnagel family also came from the Mohawk Valley, but I do not know if they came at the same time as John Davy. These Loyalists gave up all their possessions and came into Canada poor, but loyal to their king.

Mary Hufnagel married Davis ---- Lattie married ----- Clough, Jacob married ----. Great grandfather John Davy's brother's names were Henry, Thomas and Michael. His sister Catherine married ----- Asselstine -- son's name David Asselstine --- His sister ~~sister~~ Elizabeth married ---- Baker, s son's name William Baker.

Note by Marie F. Lowry. In the Book "Frontiersmen of New York" I found mention of a Thomas Davy who moved from Cherry Valley to Mohawk Valley before the Revolutionary War.

The data of the Davy family is taken from an account written by Cinderella Perry, wife of Benjamin F. Davy. She passed away in 1901.

ERNESTTOWN AND BATH.

The town of Ernesttown, the second township of Upper Canada, and hence known as Second Town, was named after Prince Ernest, the eighth child of George III. It is described by Deputy Surveyor-General Collins, whose report of the survey bears date November 7th, 1783 as "a tract of land six miles square, situate on the north side of Lake Ontario, bounded in front by the said lake, and in depth by the ungranted lands belonging to the King; on the east by the ungranted lands as aforesaid, and on the west by a township marked on the plan No. 3 (Fredericksburgh)". He pays it the compliment of having "twenty-three thousand and forty acres of land which appear to be equal in quality to the best lands in America".

This township was first settled in 1784 by members of the Second Battalion of Sir John Johnson's regiment, the King's New York Royal Rangers. The Report of the Ontario Bureau of Archives, 1905 thus epitomizes the career of this illustrious soldier: "The name of Sir John Johnson is overshadowed by the greater name of his father, Sir William Johnson. Yet his own services were many and important. He joined the army as a volunteer in the Revolutionary War, and operated largely among the Mohawk Indians. He raised and commanded a regiment of two battalions in Canada, named the Royal Greens. He defeated Herkimer in 1777 at Fort Stanwix, and suffered defeat in 1780 at Fox's Mill. He was knighted by the King in London in 1765. After the War he was appointed Superintendent of Indian Affairs in British North America, Colonel-in-Chief of the Militia of of the Eastern Township, a member of the Legislative Council. He resided in Montreal. He married Mary, daughter of John Watts, President of the Council, New York, and had one son, William, a colonel in the British army, killed at Waterloo. Sir John died at Montreal in 1822".

It will be remembered that in the allotment of the townships Captain Grass was given his choice, and selected the first township, Lin Kingston, but the followers of ~~xxxxxxx~~ Johnson and his descendants have had no cause to regret the choice made by their leader, as the Deputy Surveyor-General was not amiss in his description of the soil, although far astray as to the present dimensions and acreage of the township. As a matter of fact, Ernesttown contains 68,644 acres, and the inhabitants still maintain that it is "equal in quality to the best lands in America.

If we could have passed along the bay in the early spring of 1784, from the site of the present village of Bath to Millhaven, we would have witnessed a remarkable scene. There scattered among the openings in the dense forest were pitched scores of military tents, which had seen years of service in the Revolutionary War. Wandering along the beach, or fishing from the sides of the large bateaux anchored a short distance from the shore, were the sunburned veterans from the Mohawk Valley and the Upper Hudson. Hovering over the camp fires, preparing the rations that had been doled out by the officers in charge, were the housewives, while the restless children chased the curious squirrels through the wood or amused themselves casting pebbles in the water.

To the number of 400, the largest company assembled in the township, they waited for weeks until the surveys were completed and the lots ready for the drawing. Among them were many men who had left, or been driven from comfortable homesteads in the State of New York for no other offense than loyalty to the throne which they had been taught to respect.

If we had been there, we would have heard familiar names of Booth, Baker, Brisco, Aylsworth, Perry, Davy, Ham, Rogers, Miller, Fairfield, Fraser, Maybee, Rose, Finkle, Pruyn, Snider, Amey, and scores of others which from that day to this have been associated

It is a very common mistake to suppose that the only way to get the best of the world is to get the best of the world. In fact, the only way to get the best of the world is to get the best of the world.

There is a great deal of talk about the world being a very bad place. But the fact is, the world is a very good place. It is a place where there is a great deal of good to be found. It is a place where there is a great deal of love to be given. It is a place where there is a great deal of hope to be had.

It is a place where there is a great deal of beauty to be seen. It is a place where there is a great deal of peace to be found. It is a place where there is a great deal of joy to be had. It is a place where there is a great deal of life to be lived. It is a place where there is a great deal of love to be given.

It is a place where there is a great deal of hope to be had. It is a place where there is a great deal of love to be given. It is a place where there is a great deal of hope to be had. It is a place where there is a great deal of love to be given.

from that day to this have been associated with the steady march of progress of this grand old township. Finally the survey was completed, the drawings took place, and as the head of each family received his location ticket he pulled his stakes, shouldered his tent, and the fathers mothers and children moved away toward their new home. Trees had to be cut down, log cabins built, and both men and women were busy in the work of making homes. The officers received lots on the front, while the privates were located in the rear concessions; and as the children married they settled down on the lots farther back.
